

Join Seattle Rep's Board of Trustees!

MISSION
VISION
VALUES

Seattle Rep collaborates with extraordinary artists to create productions and programs that reflect and elevate the diverse cultures, perspectives, and life experiences of our region.

Theater at the heart of public life

Artistic Vitality
Sustainability
Generous and Inclusive Practices

The Board of Trustees is the governing body of Seattle Rep and holds the organization in trust for the community, ensuring our ongoing artistic vitality and fiscal health, both now and for future generations.

Trustees serve in a voluntary capacity, as community ambassadors for the organization, executive advisors, legal and fiduciary decision-makers, and as financial supporters of Seattle Rep. Through their wisdom, creativity, and passionate dedication, they exemplify and advance Seattle Rep's goal of ensuring our leadership and programming are diverse, inclusive, and reflective of our entire community. Visit seattlerep.org/board to view a list of our current Trustees.

Why join?

- Learn about the challenges and opportunities of running a not-for-profit theater
- Work closely with interesting and creative people—fellow Trustees and Seattle Rep's professional staff—who also care about the arts
- Enjoy access to behind-the-scenes events and activities with actors, designers, playwrights, and other artists
- Use your skills and experience to strengthen our community and advance Seattle Rep's mission in the city and region and its role in the American theater

Keith Randolph Smith and Harvy Blanks in August Wilson's Jitney (2020)

NATE WATERS

We're looking for new members who:

- Have a passion for theater and community service
- Add subject-matter expertise, such as entrepreneurship, real estate development, fundraising/business development, technology, and finance
- Bring perspectives that reflect and amplify the diversity of the Puget Sound region, including racial and ethnic diversity, gender identity, sexual orientation, and geographic range

What is expected:

- Attend Board meetings (5x/year), regular committee meetings, and the annual retreat, for an average commitment of 3–5 hours per month
- Subscribe to the season and attend other Seattle Rep events and Board-related programs
- Serve as an ambassador for Seattle Rep in your community, encouraging others to participate
- Apply your expertise, skills, perspectives, and experiences to advance the organization
- Make annual donations in an amount that is meaningful to you and participate in fundraising events

Klarissa Marie Robles, Laakan McHardy, and Analiese Emerson Guettinger in MAC BETH (2018)

NAVID BARATY

To learn more about Board service or express your interest in being considered, please visit our website or email boardinterest@seattlerep.org. The Board of Trustees is committed to ensuring that the group reflects the diversity of our region and that a wealth of perspectives inform our decisions. For that reason, individuals who identify as Black, Indigenous, and People of Color are particularly encouraged to consider Board service.

seattlerep.org/board • boardinterest@seattlerep.org