

Production Sponsorship

Astonishing art requires extraordinary resources.

Detailed craftsmanship. Technical brilliance. Impeccable artistry. It's the intricate details that set Seattle Rep apart from other regional theaters across the country. Putting forth season after season of astonishing art requires an additional investment beyond what's needed for Seattle Rep's general operations. Production sponsorship is a way to directly support a specific production, which ensures the creative and production teams have the resources necessary to put the highest quality art on stage. In thanks for your sponsorship, you'll receive special benefits, which will allow you to see first-hand the impact that your investment makes!

Sponsorship Levels: $25,000 Bagley Wright Theater | $15,000 Leo K. Theater

Lead Production Sponsorship for the World Premiere of BRUCE is at the $50,000 level and includes additional benefits and engagement opportunities.
