

AL-ILM Weekend School

7th Grade Midterm Assignment

Objective:

To assess your understanding and knowledge of the topics covered over the last year and to enhance your public speaking and presentation skills.

Instructions:

1. Topic Selection:

Each student must choose one topic from the list provided below, as either individuals or part of a group. The selection should be based on personal interest, the desire for further exploration, and relevance to Islamic teachings and values.

List of Topics:

- The Five Pillars of Islam
- The Life and Teachings of Prophet Muhammad (PBUH)
- The Importance of the Qur'an and Hadith in Daily Life
- The Significance of Ramadan and Eid
- Islamic Ethics and Morality
- Story of Prophet Ibrahim (A)
- Story of the Youth of the Cave

2. Research and Preparation:

Once you have selected your topic, conduct thorough research to gather relevant information, facts, and insights. Utilize authentic Islamic sources, scholarly articles, books, and approved websites for your research. Make sure to note down all the sources you will refer to in your presentation.

3. Presentation Guidelines:

- Your presentation should last between 5-10 minutes.
- Use visual aids such as PowerPoint slides, posters, or digital media to enhance your presentation and engage the audience.
- Structure your presentation clearly with an introduction, main points with evidence or examples, and a conclusion.
- Be prepared to answer questions from your teacher and classmates following your presentation.

4. Evaluation Criteria:

Your presentation will be assessed based on the following:

- Content Accuracy and Depth: Understanding of the topic, factual accuracy, and depth of research.
- Presentation Skills: Clarity of speech, engagement with the audience, use of visual aids, and time management.
- Creativity and Originality: How creatively you present the information and make the topic interesting.
- Response to Questions: Ability to answer questions accurately and confidently.

5. Submission:

Please submit your chosen sources to your teacher by Friday for approval [Email: Farhan.q@live.com]

Note:

Remember, this is an opportunity to explore and deepen your understanding of Islamic teachings and share your insights with your classmates. Good luck, and we look forward to seeing your presentations!
