

Midterm Project – 9th & 10th Grade.

It is important for the parents to work with the students to make sure the project is productive enough to be shared with the community for possible Ramadan competition.

The Seniors' Midterm project: Prepare a two slides PowerPoint presentation in which you include the following points:

1. Write 3 practical self-development objectives that you would like to accomplish this Ramadan. These objectives should help you create a balanced lifestyle between:
  - a. Strengthen your religion: What can you learn about Islam that will expand your knowledge through the Quran and Hadith?
  - b. Building a healthy family with your Family: How can you strengthen your relationship with your parents and your siblings?
  - c. Be involved in your community: What community engagement activities would you like to be involved in and give back?
2. What is your plan to achieve these goals? Examples:
  - a. Reading daily Quran verse and understanding its meaning.
  - b. Praying all prayers on time
  - c. Helping with cooking at home, cleaning
  - d. Volunteering in the community, e.g. the Masjid or community event
3. How to measure your success? Example:
  - a. How many verses of Quran or hadith can you read daily?
  - b. How often can you help your parents and siblings?
  - c. How many hours a week are you planning on volunteering?
4. Recommendation and advice for a better Ramadan

Ahmed Alamine

Imam and Director of Religious Programs

Indianapolis Muslim Community Association (IMCA)

Address: 2846 Cold Spring Rd. Indianapolis, IN 46222

Office Phone: (317) 855-9934 (Call or text)