

"Hark, what fine change is in the music!" - Two Gentlemen of Verona

Join us on May 21 to hear how our young leaders are creating a better world!

Reception will be hosted by

The School for Ethics and Global Leadership

at

Poets House*

10 River Terrace, New York, NY

Saturday, May 21, 2011

5:00-7:00 pm

Featured Speaker:

Sheryl WuDunn

Pulitzer Winner and Co-Author of Recent Best-Seller, "Half the Sky"

With remarks by Noah Bopp, Founder and Director of
The School for Ethics and Global Leadership

And a performance led by

Phoebe Bodurtha

SEGL Graduate and Founder of "Vocal for Change,"

a Non-Profit, Inner-City Music Outreach Program

featuring

THE VOCAL FOR CHANGE ELM CITY MIDDLE SCHOOL SINGERS

Charitable donations are welcome and can be made out to:

the School for Ethics and Global Leadership, a founding partner of Vocal for Change and other youth-led non-profits. Details available at www.schoolforethics.org.

First 50 contributors will receive a complimentary copy of "Half the Sky" at the event.

RSVP to bodurtha@optonline.net

*Poets House is a new, eco-friendly building at the corner of Murray Street and River Terrace in Lower Manhattan's Battery Park, with views of the lower Hudson River.