Amarillo has an incredible arts community. From professional organizations, to community-based efforts, Amarillo may have more arts per person than any place you’ve visited. Amarillo’s Cultural District spotlights a wide variety of visual, performing and culinary arts along with architectural and historical sites.

Enjoy a symphony concert, thrill to a ballet, marvel at an opera, see a gallery, stroll in a museum, listen to the local music scene, find outdoor sculpture, and catch all the arts in Amarillo.

Amarillo’s Cultural District brings together events that have been longstanding favorites such as High Noon on the Square and Jazztober, as well as newcomers Create! and The Community Market. For more information on these events please visit centercity.org

Welcome to Amarillo

Amarillo named as one of the top 15 under the radar cities to visit

In self-named Famarillo, parents and kids will have a blast at places like the Don Harrington Discovery Center, where the Space Theater and lots of hands-on exhibits will keep you awed for the afternoon. Thrill-seeking families will find plenty to satisfy at Wonderland Amusement Park in the northern side of town. Be sure to ride the Texas Tornado and the Hornet coasters for twists, flips, and dips you won’t soon forget. For the artists in your brood, the colorful car sculpture of Cadillac Ranch is a must-see. After an outdoorsy day hiking nearby Palo Duro Canyon State Park, don’t skip a trip to The GoldenLight Cantina for a burger that is the stuff of legend; just ask a local.
