Immersion Avant Garde

With hundreds of galleries and art studios, plus countless occasions for music and dancing, creative expression is a way of life in Asheville. There are plenty of opportunities for visitors to get in on the artsy fun. ▶ Take a class in clay at Odyssey Center for Ceramic Arts ▶ Learn to make your own artistic tome at Asheville Bookworks. ▶ Sit at the bar at Lexington Glassworks and try a local beer in a pint glass blown by the artists. ▶ Move to the beat of the Friday Night Drum Circle ▶ Join a beginner drumming class at Skinny Beats Drum Shop & Gallery.

Creative Connections

▶ Guided Gallery Tour: Art Connections Tours connect art lovers to makers via one-on-one tours to a variety of local studios and galleries. Tours go into the coves and hollows of Western NC and down hidden back roads showcasing the stunning mountain views that serve as an inspiration point for so many artists. ▶ NEW RAD Tour: The artist-led Asheville Art Studio Tours take participants on a guided walking tour in the River Arts District. Upgrade to the "experience tour" to get your hands dirty.

Chihuly comes to Biltmore in 2018

"Chihuly at Biltmore" brings breathtaking glass sculptures to the historic house and gardens May 17 - October 4, 2018. Chihuly's work is featured in more than 200 museum collections around the world but this is the first time his breathtaking work will be on display at Biltmore. As part of the exhibition, Biltmore will host a first-ever evening experience in the gardens that will offer views of the sculptures after dark. "Chihuly Nights at Biltmore" will be by reservation only and require a separate ticket.

RAD News

A number of local efforts are planned for the next five years that will transform the River Arts District - connected greenway spaces, bike trails, rooftop event space, new adventures on the French Broad River and more! New Belgium just opened their East Coast operations along the river, furthering the district's appeal for well-rounded entertainment offerings. ▶ Also NEW: Music venues The Salvage Station and Asheville Guitar Bar AND The Foundation, a new home for 12 Bones and a second RAD location for Wedge Brewing, with a constantly changing street art landscape.

Leaf Through Literary Legacies

With such a spectacular backdrop from which to draw inspiration, it's no wonder so many literary figures have penned noted novels on the region. Drop by Malaprop's Bookstore to pick your read, and then make a pilgrimage to some of the famed authors' haunts. Hike Cold Mountain, the setting that inspired Charles Frazier's bestseller, or spend a day on the grounds of Connemara, poet Carl Sandburg's graceful Flat Rock home. A wander along the French Broad River is a nod to Wilma Dykeman's legacy, or stroll the shaded grounds of Riverside Cemetery to pay homage to O. Henry. And wherever you see the name Altamont, that's an ode to Asheville's native son. The Thomas Wolfe Memorial offers tours daily. Even if you haven't read The Great Gatsby, no literary tour of Asheville would be complete without a visit to The Grove Park Inn where F. Scott Fitzgerald summured in glamorous style while his wife, Zelda, underwent treatment in nearby Highland Hospital.

Asheville's Vaudeville Revival

To use the term "freak show," one might take offense, but not in Asheville, where sultry, sexy, comedic and vaudeville-esque theatrics are en vogue. Catch a roving comedy show on the purple LaZoom tour bus. Asheville Vaudeville troupe does it right with juggling and magic acts, burlesque, aerial arts and sideshows presented with a healthy dose of humor. The Americana Burlesque & Sideshow Festival offers shows and workshops each May that will tickle your fancy. And for a wildly different take on Shakespearean theater, the Montford Park Players have been known to present the Bard's classics with a steampunk spin. Free productions take place at a lovely outdoor amphitheater during the warmer months.

Folk Meets Funk: An Evolution of Art

Western North Carolina as a whole is deeply entrenched in the craft tradition. Step inside the Appalachian Craft Center, Grovewood and Ariel galleries, or the new Southern Highland Craft Gallery in Biltmore Village to realize the immense talent this region holds. But for every artisan bending to tradition, there's also an artist pushing the boundaries. Stroll through the River Arts District to see where folk and funk intermingle. ZaPow! in the South Slope exhibits affordable illustration and pop art; The Bender Gallery displays a museum-quality collection of emerging and established glass artists; and The Satellite Gallery always keeps it contemporary. Or, dip into The Center for Craft, Creativity & Design, a nationally-recognized organization dedicated to education around American craft, including the annual Windgate Fellowship Award.

Top 5 Spots for a Truly Gatsby Moment

1. Order a gin Rickey at the Grove Park Inn where F. Scott Fitzgerald summured in high style.
2. Browse the shops of the Grove Arcade, then admire the Battery Park Hotel (now residences) on the north end. It was one of a couple of Fitzgerald's hideouts.
3. Peek inside the lobby of the Skyland Hotel in Hendersonville where the author penned "The Crack Up" in the mid 1930s.
4. Gaze at downtown Asheville's art deco masterpieces and picture yourself in the lavish era of the 30s.
5. Visit The Grove Park Inn in September when the hotel hosts Salute to F. Scott Fitzgerald Weekend, which includes guided tours of his rooms.
