GETTING HERE

Bloomington is located in the heart of the Midwest, in one of the region’s most picturesque areas. Just 45 minutes south of Indianapolis, two hours from Louisville, and four hours from Chicago, Bloomington is conveniently located within a day’s drive of over half of the U.S. population, making it a convenient place to visit. Three major roads provide easy access: Indiana State Road 37 runs north-south providing a direct route to Indianapolis in the north, I-69 provides access from southwestern Indiana, and Indiana State Road 46 runs east-west across the entire state. No matter where you’re coming from, you’ll find Bloomington easily accessible.

DOWNTOWN BLOOMINGTON, INC.

Downtown Bloomington, Inc. is dedicated to the promotion and support of Bloomington’s vibrant downtown area, where shopping, restaurants, and history are the key ingredients. DBI is a certified Main Street Community, which is a program of the National Trust for Historic Preservation. 812-336-3681; downtownbloomington.com

MONROE COUNTY COURTHOUSE

Located in the center of the downtown square, this majestic 1907 limestone building is typical of early Monroe County architecture. This beautiful facility was renovated in 2012 to highlight and enhance many of the original design elements of the building. It serves as the home of Monroe County Government. Self-guided tours are available at the entrance. 100 W. 5th St.; co.monroe.in.us

SELF-GUIDED WALKING TOURS

More than a dozen self-guided tours are available to help you explore the area. Discover the secrets of the county courthouse, explore Hoagy Carmichael’s favorite hangouts, or stroll through the Vinegar Hill Limestone Historic District among homes that once belonged to limestone carvers and IU faculty. Available at the Monroe County History Center and the Bloomington Visitors Center.

GENERAL INFORMATION

BLOOMINGTON ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION

BEDC is the catalyst for retention, development, and attraction of quality jobs in Bloomington/Monroe County. BEDC focuses on connecting talent, employers, organizations, and startups through strategic partnerships and economic development assistance programs, and by hosting the Bloomington Life Sciences and Bloomington Technology Partnerships, initiatives that foster the growth of these industries. 1720 N. Kinser Pike, Suite 001; 812-335-7346; comparebloomington.us

POPULATION DEMOGRAPHICS (ESTIMATED)

Monroe County is home to just over 141,000 people. Nearly 82,000 of them reside within the City of Bloomington, including 42,000 IU students during the school year. Nearby Ellettsville boasts over 6,500 residents. The median age of the county’s residents is 28.1 years and the population is highly educated with almost 43% having a bachelor degree or higher.

PARKING

Several lots and garages are located throughout the city and spaces are available for a nominal fee. Metered parking is available throughout the downtown area. Visitor parking is available in select lots on the IU campus, and daily IU parking passes can be purchased at the Bloomington Visitors Center, which are valid in all lots. Look for signs to direct you or see the transportation page on visitbloomington.com for details.
LIQUOR LAWS
The minimum drinking age in Indiana is 21. Alcohol may be sold in licensed establishments from 9 am to 3 am, Monday through Saturday, and from 11 am to 3 am on Sunday. Indiana law prohibits the sale of packaged liquor on Sundays unless purchased directly from a local winery or brewery. Open containers are not allowed in vehicles at any time.

SMOKING ORDINANCE
The city’s smoking ordinance prohibits smoking in all public spaces, including restaurants, bars, and outdoor seating areas. The ordinance is designed to protect the public health and welfare of the community and its visitors from the hazards induced by breathing secondhand smoke. For more information, visit smokefreebloomington.org.

NEIGHBORING TOWNS IN MONROE COUNTY
Contact the Bloomington Visitors Center at 800-800-0037 for driving directions or more information on these and other nearby communities.

TOWN OF ELLETTSVILLE
Just seven miles west of Bloomington, Ellettsville is known for a hometown atmosphere and as a center of the local limestone industry. There you’ll find unique restaurants and shopping, and special events including the Indiana Limestone Symposium each June, the Monroe County Fall Festival in September, and the Hilly Hundred Bicycle Tour in October. Chamber of Commerce; 812-876-6611; ellettsvillechamber.org

HARRODSBURG
Just 12 miles south of Bloomington, near Monroe Lake, is the town of Harrodsburg. First established in 1837, this small town is host to the Heritage Days Festival in late October.

STINESVILLE
Incorporated in 1855, this quaint small town is 11 miles northwest of Bloomington. It was once at the center of a thriving Indiana limestone industry, evidence of which can still be seen as you drive along the curvy country roads around town. Plan a visit during the Stone Quarry Festival in late September.

SMITHVILLE
Also in the southern part of the county is the town of Smithville. This little town is close to Monroe Lake, and a great stopping point on the way to Fairfax SRA, especially on Saturdays in warmer months when they have their weekly farmers’ market.
Try Ivy Tech while you’re a student at IUB.

Ivy Tech Community College offers more than 200 courses that transfer to IU Bloomington, and more than 1,700 IU students take courses at Ivy Tech.
