

Traffic Advisory:

March for Our Lives on Boston Common

Saturday, March 24th

The following information has been provided by the Boston Transportation Department:

The March for Our Lives will take place on the Boston Common on Saturday, March 24, 2018. Marchers will start from Madison Park Vocational High School (75 Malcolm X Boulevard, Roxbury) at 11 am. The event is scheduled from noon to 5 pm.

Traffic and parking will be impacted, and those coming to attend are strongly encouraged not to drive into the city. Information on Blue Bikes, the regional bike share system, may be found at thehubway.com, and information on the MBTA may be found at MBTA.com. For a faster return trip, the MBTA advises riders to purchase a round-trip rather than a one-way ticket.

Traffic delays are expected as vehicles will be held back at intersections to allow marchers to proceed along the route.

Participants will depart from Madison Park Vocational High School and proceed on Malcolm X Boulevard, turn right onto Tremont Street, left onto Melnea Cass Boulevard, right onto Columbus Avenue, right onto Park Plaza, left onto Charles Street South, straight onto Charles Street, and complete the march at the Boston Common.

"Tow Zone No Stopping Boston Police Special Event Saturday" parking restrictions will be in effect as follows:

- Charles Street, both sides, from Boylston Street to Beacon Street
- Beacon Street, both sides, from Park Street to Arlington Street
- Arlington Street, both sides, from Beacon Street to Boylston Street
- Boylston Street, both sides, from Arlington Street to Tremont Street
- Malcolm X Boulevard, both sides, from Roxbury Street to Tremont Street.
