TELL ABOUT THE SOUTH: MISHIO YAMANAKA

12:30 PM TO 1:30 PM

Love House / 410 East Franklin Street Chapel Hill (919) 962-5665

Mishio Yamanaka, a PhD candidate in UNC's Department of History and the 2017-18 McColl Fellow, will show how Creoles of color in New Orleans achieved the partial desegregation of public schools during Reconstruction and resisted resegregation in 1877. In her dissertation, she argues that public schools catalyzed Creoles' civil rights debate, as they considered educational opportunities fundamental to racial equality. By examining school records and family histories, her project reveals how Creoles of color forged a community-wide desegregation campaign during the Reconstruction period. ## LADIES NIGHT OUT - HATS & WRAPS

6 PM TO 9:15 PM

Downtown Hillsborough / Churton & King St Hillsborough (919) 732-8156

Hillsborough Merchants present: Ladies Night Out: Hats & Wraps! Ladies, gather your friends, neighbors and co-workers, wear your favorite hat & wrap, and come to Downtown and West Hillsborough to enjoy a night out with shopping and restaurant deals, specials and prizes (see list of participating merchants and restaurants, and deals). Check-in when you first arrive in Downtown at K's Closet at 200 North Churton Street for a flyer listing all participating businesses and the special they are offering for Ladies Night Out, as well as a raffle ticket that you must get signed while visiting at least 5 businesses participating in Ladies Night Out. Also, the first 250 women to check-in will receive a free "sparkling" gift to wear. As things wind down around 9pm, ladies should head over to Hot Tin Roof at 115 West Margaret Lane in Downtown to turn in your raffle ticket, and prepare for a Hat Judging Contest and the raffle drawing for a gift basket full of Hillsborough Merchants gifts at 9:15pm. So ladies, come shop, eat and have fun. This night is just for you! business.hillsboroughchamber.com/

ICON LECTURE SERIES

7 PM TO 8:30 PM

Extraordinary Ventures / 200 South Elliott Road Chapel Hill

Admission: $15 online, $20 at the door. Hans von Spakovsky, a senior legal fellow in The Heritage Foundation's Edwin Meese III Center for Legal and Judicial Studies, will be giving a talk entitled "What Do We Really Know About Voter Fraud?" Mr. Spakovsky, an authority on a wide range of issues, served two years as a member of the Federal Election Commission, the authority charged with enforcing campaign finance laws for congressional and presidential elections, including public funding. Heritage's election reform project examines not only how to protect the integrity of campaigns and elections but also to achieve greater fairness and security. "In an era of razor-thin election margins, these issues are vital to the preservation of our republican form of government and the rule of law," von Spakovsky says. Tickets can be purchased online at www.iconlectureseries.com.

8 PM

ArtsCenter / 300-G East Main St Carrboro (919) 929-2787

Admission: $15 Public, $12 Senior, $10 Student

Transactors Improv winds up its season with Past Present, a show about how childhood and adulthood are inextricably linked. The two-act performance is improvised from audience suggestions. "Who we were as kids largely determines who we are as adults," says director Greg Hohn. "Our childhoods presage our social, professional, and family lives as we move with or react against the forces that shaped us. "Of course, in typically weird Transactors fashion, we will start with adult characters and then try to figure out who they must have been as children." The Cloudbuster Nine: The Untold Story of Ted Williams And the Baseball Team That Helped Win World War II, Presentation by Anne R. Keene. Major league baseball in Chapel Hill? It happened back in 1943, when Ted Williams, formerly of the Boston Red Sox, came to Chapel Hill during World War II to participate in the U.S. Navy Pre-Flight School training. The Flight School formed a baseball team called the "Cloudbusters." Anne Keene's remarkable book, The Cloudbuster Nine, is an outstanding example of research into a forgotten corner of American history.
