MONDAY Apr 23

SONGWRITERS' CIRCLE

6:30 PM

ArtsCenter / 300-G East Main St Carrboro (919) 929-2787

Whether an experienced or beginning songwriter, nothing is more valuable than the response of other songwriters. The Songwriters' Circle at The ArtsCenter provides an evening every other week for composers to share their work with each other and receive both encouragement and honest feedback. The bar will be open. This is a time for participating in a sharing community rather than performing. Come to The ArtsCenter Gallery on alternate Mondays to find a community of songwriters developing their craft together. Upright piano on site! artscenterlive.org/

"A" TRAIN

7:30 PM

PlayMakers Repertory Company / 150 Country Club Rd Chapel Hill (919) 962-7529

Admission: Tickets start @ $15

When Amy learns that one of her young twins is autistic, she feels like her life is falling apart. She plunges into the world of autism, trying to piece together a new reality from the countless people she meets: parents, educators, teachers and especially other autistic individuals. Abounding with music, irreverent humor and verbatim interviews, the world of the play is part oral history project, part magical journey into the heartbeat of a different way of being. One woman plays multiple roles in this adventurous exploration of what it is to be human. In the process Amy is changed forever, learning to see the world, her son and the very nature of happiness with clearer eyes. playmakersrep.org/

PRICELESS GEM TOUR

3 PM TO 4:30 PM

UNC Visitors' Center / 250 East Franklin Street Chapel Hill (919) 962-1630

Edible Garden and Campus Landscape – At Carolina, natural beauty is as basic as the air we breathe. From McCorkle's ancient trees to the flowers, vegetables, and herbs dotting the campus, our landscape is an integral part of the Carolina experience. Committed to preserving our ecological heritage, the UNC community is also creating new opportunities to connect with nature right here on campus, such as the Edible Campus Initiative. A collaborative project between students, staff, and faculty, the ECI envisions creating a campus where students interact with their landscapes in a way that transforms how they think about their role in the food system. Join UNC arborist Tom Bythell and Laura Mindlin of the Edible Campus Initiative to explore the many ways in which Carolina's environment nourishes both the body and the soul. To reserve your space, please email us at uncvisitorscenter@unc.edu. In case of inclement weather, or for any additional questions, please call UNC Visitors' Center at (919) 962-1630.
