Discovering Charlotte Harbor & the Gulf Islands

Charlotte Harbor & the Gulf Islands is nestled along Florida's Southwest Gulf Coast, between Sarasota and Naples, about 100 miles south of Tampa. The area covers a diverse landscape of cities and towns.

At 5 to 25 feet above sea level, Charlotte Harbor & the Gulf Islands enjoys a climate characterized as sub-tropic where extremes of temperature in both summer and winter are checked by the tempering influence of the Gulf of Mexico.

Natural amenities include miles of beaches; more than 70 parks and preserves; and fishing, paddling and sailing. Post-golf activities can be found in our area's spas, dining and nightlife.

GOLF

Discover the natural attraction of golf in Charlotte Harbor & the Gulf Islands! Come stay and play in the area ranked the 3rd Best Place in America to Live and Play Golf by Golf Digest. Scenic vistas and spectacular landscapes provide the backdrop for naturally inviting play on courses that include two ranked 4½ stars by Golf Digest and three Audubon-certified courses.

BASEBALL

The Tampa Bay Rays, 2008 American League champions, hold their spring training at the newly renovated Charlotte Sports Park. The Charlotte Stone Crabs, the High-A affiliate of the Tampa Bay Rays, also call the Sports Park their home turf.

FISHING

Internationally renowned as one of the world's top sport fishing destinations, Charlotte Harbor provides deep-sea, back-bay and flats fishing for numerous fish such as tarpon, snook, redfish, barracuda, cobia and grouper.

DINING

The dining scene in Charlotte Harbor & the Gulf Islands is an eclectic mix of seafood shacks, sidewalk cafes, waterfront eateries, fine dining and sweet spots. Whatever the craving and occasion, there's a restaurant satisfying every tastebud.

BOATING & WATERSPORTS

This tranquil coastal community boasts more than 830 miles of shoreline, including river passages, mangrove-edged aquatic preserve and sandy beaches. Ranked as one of SAIL Magazine's top 10 places to sail in the U.S., Charlotte Harbor is known worldwide.

The layout is very challenging for all skill levels. Designed by Ted McAnlis, there are no gimme short par-three holes like on most Executive courses. This golf course review will be given from the back blue tees, but beginners would be better served hitting from the whites. This is especially true on the front nine, which is far more difficult than the back nine.
