Welcome to Chattanooga, Tennessee!

Whether you're planning a trip here or you have just arrived, it's never been a more exciting time to visit Chattanooga. The Scenic City has grown substantially over the past two decades and we are incredibly proud of the destination we have become.

Chattanooga is nestled on the banks of the Tennessee River and is surrounded by the scenic Lookout and Signal Mountains and Missionary Ridge, as well as numerous mountains beyond that. This landscape provides hundreds of miles of outdoor activities including hiking, mountain biking, climbing, bouldering, whitewater rafting, kayaking, stand up paddle boarding and more.

The Downtown District is a great place to start. It's compact, vibrant and animated. You can park your car and navigate the city easily on foot, on the free electric shuttle, by using our public bicycle share system, or aboard the new trolley that takes visitors on a tour of the city. The city is filled with world-class attractions, riverside parks, live music & entertainment, amazing restaurants, exciting sporting events, outdoor adventures, rich history, a thriving arts scene, shopping and many diverse annual events. Less than six miles from downtown, you can enjoy Lookout Mountain where you will find some of Chattanooga's most popular and iconic attractions. No matter what your interest, there's always something to do in Chattanooga.

Chattanooga is dedicated to continually enhancing the city, so you'll always find new events, music venues, attractions and restaurants popping up all over town.

Our official Visitors Guide provides plenty of information but you will also find some great content on our website and social media sites, including contests, giveaways and up-to-date information on events.

No matter where you begin, we hope you have an incredible experience in our city and feel the warm Southern hospitality from our locals.

Regards,

What's New

There are so many wonderful attractions in Chattanooga to explore...Rock City, Ruby Falls, Incline Railway, Tennessee Aquarium, Creative Discovery Museum, Tennessee Valley Railroad Museum and many more you can read about featured throughout the "What To Do" section of this guide. But what's really exciting about Chattanooga is that in spite of already being crowned the "Best Town Ever," it just keeps getting better and better.

Station Street

Station Street is Tennessee's newest entertainment destination at the Chattanooga Choo Choo. The pedestrian-friendly street is now an outdoor festival space and offers patio access to Songbirds Guitar Museum, The Comedy Catch, Terminal Brewhouse, Backstage Bar, Hush, Revelry Room, Frothy Monkey, and much more.

Songbirds: A Collection of Timeless Guitars

Located at the historic Chattanooga Choo Choo, the new Songbirds Guitar Museum is an experience in pop-culture. The venue features the world's greatest collection of rare and vintage guitars, multimedia presentations, concerts, educational workshops, and special VIP All Access passes.

Gray Line of Tennessee Hop On/Hop Off trolley tour

The Chattanooga Hop takes visitors on a 75 minute tour and stops at 12 iconic attractions and points of interest. Guests can board the classic red & green trolley at any of the 12 stops. Tours start and end at the Chattanooga Choo Choo. The pass includes unlimited hop on/hop off privileges at all stops plus the second day FREE.

Tennessee Aquarium opens new exhibits

In the new Lemur Forest Exhibit, guests can see the red-ruffed and ring-tailed lemurs playing in their lush rainforest setting under the Aquarium's glass peaks. The new Tiny, But Mighty Important Exhibit features never-seen-before holographic technology that gives visitors a unique 3-D look at water quality and celebrates the importance of animals such as shiners, darters, and minnows.

Gig City Times Two!

Chattanooga has the world's fastest internet at 10 gigabytes(Gig) per second thanks to EPB's fiber optic network. Before the internet, a gig meant live music. Chattanooga is home to a few dozen live music venues, dozens of restaurants with live music, and tons of free live music concerts. Now there are two reasons everyone is calling Chattanooga Gig City!

River Rides

Chattanooga's section of the Tennessee River is one big and sparkling reason we're known as the Scenic City. And if you think the view of this winding waterway is spectacular from one of our many bridges, wait until you actually get out on the water. Whether you prefer to float above or dive right in, we've got you covered.

Southern Belle

See the historic sights, the Chattanooga skyline and Lookout Mountain from the beautiful Tennessee River. Enjoy a one and a half hour daytime cruise with a delicious lunch and commentary on river history, legends, & places! Or partake in the dinner cruises where true Southern hospitality prevails in the old riverboat tradition.

Where the Southern Belle docks, stop by the 3rd Deck Burger Bar. This hidden gem overlooking the Tennessee River has outside patio or indoor leather couch seating.

Chattanooga Ducks

More than just a ride, it's an adventure! Begin at the corner of 5th and Market where you will board an authentic WWII amphibious landing craft built specifically for the D-Day invasion. Enjoy an historic tour through downtown Chattanooga and just when you think you have seen it all, splash into the Tennessee River at Ross' Landing for an historical and ecological tour of the river and the Chattanooga Waterfront. The tour lasts about 1 hour.

Tour the waterfront aboard the Duck!

Experience Chattanooga as never before from both the street and the river. Join us aboard a restored WWII landing craft for a one hour tour of the waterfront. Tours start and end on the corner of 5th and Market Street. Advance reservations online.

Chattanooga Adventures

There's a reason Chattanooga's been dubbed the "Best Town Ever" by Outside Magazine...twice. There are adventures around every corner and hidden inside mountains, just waiting for you and your family to escape the ordinary and explore.

Ruby Falls

Discovered in 1928, Ruby Falls gushes more than 1,120 feet below the surface of Lookout Mountain. It's the nation's largest and deepest underground waterfall open to the public, and definitely a unique experience.

The Lost Sea Adventure

America's largest underground lake lies below the surface near Sweetwater, TN. Visitors can tour the caverns, glide across the "Lost Sea" by boat, and even rough it on a Wild Cave Tour.

Raccoon Mountain

The caverns of Raccoon Mountain feature more than 5 miles of underground trails. Two different guided tours are offered: the Crystal Palace Tour for those interested in a more educational experience, and the Wild Cave Expedition for those who want to get down and dirty.

Cumberland Caverns

With more than 32 miles of caves to explore, Cumberland Caverns offers a varied experience with underground passageways, rock formations, waterfalls and more. From day trips to overnights to bluegrass concerts, these caves have a ton going on that you don't want to miss.

Redefine family time with authentic experiences at Chattanooga's unique attractions

Chattanooga's ability to entertain and inspire kids of all ages is just one reason the city has twice been named Outside Magazine's "Best Town Ever." Between boat rides, climbing walls, zip lines and more, Chattanooga is the best city for adventurous families.

After the water, take to the sky with Flying Camp, the area's only tandem paragliding flights, or plunge from the sky with Chattanooga Skydiving.

Afterward, head to Lookout Mountain where families can climb and fly through the trees together via the Ruby Falls ZIPStream zipline experience. For those that want to keep their feet on the ground, try horseback riding at the Tennessee Dude & Guest Ranch.

Nearby iGNiS Glass Studio provides another unique experience, offering you the chance to mold molten glass into ornaments and souvenirs to take home to loved ones.

The Tennessee River flows right between the North Shore and downtown, and families can experience the water in several different ways, including renting stand-up paddleboards, canoes or kayaks. The whole family can paddle beneath the bridges for an intimate look at our biggest waterway.

For the truly extreme sports families, plan a day hang gliding at Lookout Mountain Flight Park. Inexperienced fliers as young as 4 years old can fly tandem, getting a bird's-eye view. There's also world-class whitewater rafting on the Ocoee River available with Cherokee Rafting, High Country, Ocoee Outdoors, Quest Expeditions and Outland Expeditions.

If you're looking for a theme park, Lake Winnepesaukee Amusement Park and SoakYa Water Park is home to kiddie rides, family rides and thrill rides, as well as special seasonal events.

And of course, no family excursion is complete without a stop at the iconic MoonPie® General Store on Broad Street. After all that adventuring, a delicious MoonPie (or two, or three) is definitely in order.

Free for all to enjoy is the 13-mile long Tennessee Riverwalk that meanders along the beautiful scenery of the river. On any sunny day, you'll find locals walking, skating and biking from end to end.

Family Fun Itinerary

Relax! It's all here and it's all good. Enjoy four days of family fun in the Scenic City.

Day 1 Morning

Start your morning out with a trip to the Chattanooga Zoo. This ideal sized zoo for families is full of exotic animals, from chimpanzees and tarantulas to snow leopards, red pandas and more. After spending the morning indulging your wild side, head over to the North Shore for a quick and tasty lunch at local favorite Taco Mamacita, a modern mix of Mexican fare and American dining.

Afternoon

Creative Discovery Museum is a must stop for kids! Here they can explore unique and educational play stations that are fun for the whole family at one of the nation's top children's museums.

Visit with animals that make their homes in the Southeast including a bobcat, crows, red-tailed hawks, owls, vultures, bald eagle, flying squirrel and snakes at Reflection Riding Arboretum and Nature Center.

Day 2 Morning

This day is all about legendary Chattanooga. Start out at Rock City, where unique, accessible trails lead to a gorgeous view from the top of Lookout Mountain. On a clear day, you can reportedly see seven surrounding states. Then, make the short drive over to Ruby Falls, where the family can venture underground for a good look at the largest and deepest underground commercial waterfall in the country.

Before you leave the mountain, be sure to stop at the Incline Railway and take the mile-long rail car trip down the 72.7 percent incline, billed as one of the steepest passenger inclines in the world.

Afternoon

After all that exploring, you're sure to be hungry, so head over to Food Works on the North Shore for some delicious and progressive Southern fare. Finish with ice cream from Clumpies on Frazier Avenue. Enjoy your cone as you walk across the Walnut Street Bridge over the Tennessee River and catch a Chattanooga Lookouts minor league baseball game.

Day 3 Morning

Start out with breakfast at Puckett's, where you can pick from pancakes, omelets and more, all served in the heart of downtown.

After breakfast, walk the short distance from the restaurant to the Tennessee Aquarium, where you can experience 10,000 animals in its Ocean and River exhibits. From encountering alligators to watching otters play to gawking at sharks, plan to spend a considerable amount of your day here, because there's so much to see and do.

If you've got a big Disney Mater fan in the group, drop by the International Towing and Recovery Museum for some educational entertainment. This unique museum tells the story of the towing and recovery industry worldwide with some of the oldest, fastest and largest tow trucks in the world.

Finally, finish up your day at the 3rd Deck Burger Bar, situated inside the Southern Belle Riverboat at Ross's Landing. This restaurant is a sort of hidden gem, sitting 40 feet above the Tennessee River and featuring a menu that boasts a variety of excellent burgers.

Day 4

This day begins with shopping so you can memorialize your trip. Whether downtown or at Hamilton Place Mall, take some time to browse and buy some real finds.

Grab a quick lunch and dinner at one of the many restaurants near or in the mall before heading over to Sir Goony's Family Fun Center or Pin Strikes. These two Chattanooga landmarks feature mini-golf, bowling complete with vintage structures at each hole, as well as classic finds like an arcade, batting cages and bumper cars.

Today ends with an historic train ride on the Tennessee Valley Railroad, riding off into the sunset with sleepy, happy kids!

Really Romantic

Chattanooga, one of the South's most romantic cities

Whether you're foodies, art lovers, outdoor types or urbanites, Chattanooga offers something for every romantic couple vacationing in the Scenic City.

Stroll the lovely Bluff View Art District, grabbing lunch or dinner at one of the local eateries nearby. Afterward, grab a cup of joe and some house-made chocolates at Rembrandt's Coffee House. You can either sit on the picturesque patio outside or take your treats on a walk to explore the public art on display in the district. The Hunter Museum of American Art is also a terrific place to explore, with its rotating art exhibits and picturesque views of the Tennessee River.

Across town, the Southside neighborhood serves as a fun and high-energy date-night destination. Start out by walking along

ACCOLADES

The New York Times featured Chattanooga as a 36-hour escape destination stating “Not too small and not too big, Chattanooga is really the undiscovered gem of Tennessee.”

Main Street and checking out the charming shops and art galleries. Grab dinner at Alleia, or Alex Thai Food & Sushi Bistro and then make your way to Clyde's On Main for after-dinner drinks.

Spend a day playing in Coolidge and Renaissance Parks on the North Shore, where you'll find walking trails and sprawling fields that are perfect for picnics. Explore Frazier Avenue, home to an abundance of local shops and eateries. Wander across the Walnut Street Bridge for a unique view of downtown and a breath of fresh air high above the Tennessee River.

If you're looking for a thrilling and spooky adventure together, sign up for Chattanooga Ghost Tours and an experienced guide will lead you around the city while regaling you with local tales of mystery, horror and history.

If you're looking for some seriously good entertainment, check out the newly revamped Station Street by the Chattanooga Choo Choo.

Be sure and explore Chattanooga's entertainment district on Station Street. This cobblestone addition to Chattanooga's Southside includes multiple bars, restaurants and music venues.

Breweries, Wineries & Distilleries

When the time comes for a nice adult beverage, Chattanooga's becomes home to a cocktail of options. Martin Luther King Boulevard in Chattanooga now has three breweries with some of the South's tastiest suds and Look Out Winery is pouring some fine wine with beautiful views.

Only a few years ago, distilling spirits was illegal in Chattanooga, now the Chattanooga Whiskey Experimental Distillery makes some excellent Chattanooga Whiskey and offers an impressive tasting room across from the Choo Choo. About an hour down the road towards Nashville, George Dickel Distillery has been making Tennessee Whiskey for more than 100 years.

Be sure to check these hotspots out and please drink responsibly.

Seasons in Chattanooga

SUMMER

As the weather heats up in Chattanooga, so does outdoor entertainment. As Chattanooga has twice been named “Best Town Ever” by Outside Magazine, there’s plenty to enjoy out on the trails and in the water, from mountain biking to bouldering to stand-up paddleboarding.

The city itself is teeming with life, from the boutique shops and restaurants on the North Shore to the Southside’s galleries, eateries and popular watering holes. Outdoor and indoor concerts alike attract all ages to jam out to local and visiting bands. The city’s annual Riverbend Music Festival showcases big names in music on its multiple stages, while every May through August, Nightfall hosts a more local and regional music scene at City Center. Of course, there’s nothing quite like strolling through Lake Winnepesaukah Amusement Park on a breezy summer night.

FALL

When the air turns crisp and the Tennessee Valley turns vibrant shades of red and gold, Chattanoogaans know it's the season of festivals. Get out and explore the brilliant changing colors via hiking along breathtaking vistas on Signal and Lookout Mountains and Stringers and Missionary Ridges, fall color cruises aboard the Southern Belle Riverboat, the Tennessee Valley Railroad, or Hiwassee Rail Adventure.

Enjoy great events such as Rock City's Blowing Springs Farm and Enchanted MAiZE, Wine Over Water, 3 Sisters Bluegrass Festival, RiverRocks, Haunted Cavern, Lake WinnepeSPOOKah!, Wine Over Water Food & Wine Festival, Oktoberfest celebrations, the Levitt Amp Chattanooga Music Series, and more.

In October, Chattanooga transforms itself to ChattaBOOga featuring scary and not-so-scary experiences. This season is a favorite in Chattanooga as Mother Nature unwraps her surrounding splendor while the city prepares for the coming holidays.

WINTER

Create new holiday traditions in Chattanooga this winter along the Holiday Trail of Lights with eight major points of interest featuring millions of twinkling lights. Explore the Enchanted Garden of Lights, Holidays Under the Peaks, Ice on the Landing, Christmas Underground, North Pole Limited Adventures, special holiday lunch & dinner cruises, and more. Visitors will also get to enjoy a varied array of festivals, holiday events, delicious holiday meals, Santa sightings, shopping, and live music and entertainment scattered throughout the city.

Cold weather in Chattanooga definitely does not mean staying inside. Locals love to bundle up and take to the trails for the solitude and quiet beauty of a winter hike and on mild days, outdoor rock climbing and trail running.

With the holiday shopping season in full swing, it's the perfect time to browse the local shops and boutiques at Warehouse Row and along Frazier Avenue, Main Street, and 2 North Shore as well as Hamilton Place Mall, where you'll find gifts and more.

For New Year's Eve, Chattanooga also offers a variety of family-friendly and adult options including train rides, boat rides, and late-night ice skating.

SPRING

Spring Break for families is ideal in Chattanooga with Spring Break Safari! The attractions go the extra distance this time of year to make sure families have an extra good time with special offers and activities for spring breaking families.

Restaurants' outdoor patios begin to beckon again, and local favorites in entertainment, like the free outdoor Nightfall music series at City Center, come to life.

As the trees regain their blossoms and green leaves, the outdoor scene receives a surge of life as Chattanooga Marathon runners, and the rest of the city makes good use of the mild weather out on the trails and rock walls.

Of course, one of the best things to do during this sweet time of year is to spread out a blanket at Coolidge Park, enjoy a picnic and soak up the sun.

Where the Elite Compete

Chattanooga has twice been crowned the “Best Town Ever” by Outside Magazine readers. And there’s good reason. Between 2014 and 2018, Chattanooga will host eleven IRONMAN events including the men’s and women’s 70.3 IRONMAN World Championships!

The world-renowned IRONMAN triathlon broke onto the Chattanooga scene in 2014, and since then, thousands of elite athletes have flocked to the city every May and September for the IRONMAN 70.3 and the 140.6, respectively. And in September 2017, the city had the honor of hosting the IRONMAN 70.3 World Championships, attracting athletes and onlookers from across the globe.

But even before IRONMAN made its mark on the city, Chattanooga was and continues to be home to multiple elite-level competitions. From the Chattanooga Waterfront Triathlon and the Head of the Hooch rowing regatta in the Tennessee River, to the Triple Crown bouldering competition and the 10-mile open water Swim the Suck through the Tennessee River Gorge, not to mention the Chattanooga Marathon, each event is a chance to see some spectacular athletes in action.

Day 1

Start the day off with a quick trail run on nearby Stringer’s Ridge. This 92-acre park sits right in the heart of the North Shore, just minutes away from downtown, and boasts views of the Tennessee River and the city.

Stop by Milk & Honey for an amazing breakfast and cup of coffee. After breakfast, head out to the Tennessee Wall, overlooking the beautiful Tennessee River Gorge, for some trad climbing. Or, if bouldering is more your thing, check out Little Rock City near Soddy-Daisy. If it happens to be a rainy day,

New Rock Star

The world has long known Tennessee as a state with spectacular music prowess and influence between top music cities Nashville and Memphis. Now, Chattanooga's own flourishing music scene is rising to become a third star in the state's deeply rooted musical legacy.

ACCOLADES

"A Flourishing Music Scene"

— New York Times, 2018

In the past few years, Chattanooga's live music and nightlife scene has transformed the city's after hours experience. Almost nightly, live music from rock to alternative to jazz to urban to country animates the music venues and restaurants throughout the city. Chattanooga's newest entertainment district on Station Street is a cobblestone paved pedestrian addition to Chattanooga's Southside. Terminal Brewhouse, Frothy Monkey, The Comedy Catch, Songbirds Guitar Museum, Revelry Room and multiple music venues and bars make up this new hotspot.

Beyond Station Street, you will find a variety of music venues, including the historic Tivoli Theatre, Memorial Auditorium, Barking Legs Theater, Walker Theatre, the Gran-falloon, and the new venue, The Signal.

If you prefer music with a good meal, Chattanooga offers many restaurants with live entertainment, including the Honest Pint, Clyde's on Main, the Foundry, Puckett's Grocery and many more. And you can always show off your karaoke voice at Sing It Or Wing It.

History Unfolds Here

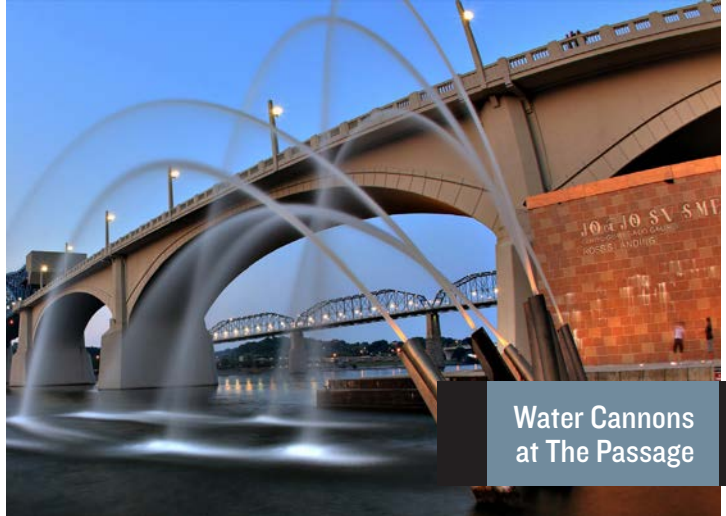

From the Trail of Tears to the Civil War, Chattanooga has a rich and diverse history that is evident in many of its popular attractions.

Where did we get our name? The city actually started out with two different names – Ross’s Landing and Lookout City. In 1838, the city officially became “Chattanooga,” a Native American word meaning “rock coming to a point” that refers to Lookout Mountain.

Chattanooga’s Native American history starts at Ross’s Landing on the downtown riverfront. This area was established in 1816 by John Ross, the chief of the Cherokee Nation, and served as a trading post and ferry. In 1838, Cherokees left from Ross’s Landing for Oklahoma on what became known as the Trail of Tears.

Ross’s Landing now has a public art memorial known as The Passage, where you can play in water cascading down steps alongside 6-foot clay medallions.

In 1817 the Brainerd Mission was established to educate and instill Christian values in Cherokee Indian children. Today, you can visit the Brainerd Mission Cemetery — a Trail of Tears site where over 50 graves of mission-ary workers are laid to rest.

During the 1860’s Civil War, Chattanooga was a strategic battleground because of the mountains, ridges, river and rail systems, an important location for both the Union and the

#2 Mid-Sized City Arts Destination

Travel + Leisure magazine calls Chattanooga a

Cultural Find

Chattanooga is known as the Scenic City for its burgeoning art scene just as much as for its inspiring artists. We pride ourselves on providing art that can be enjoyed by anyone at any age, whether in the form of one of our museums or the public art that adorns the city.

For an active day outside, take the kids and explore the Sculpture Fields at Montague Park, an international sculpture park with sprawling fields that are dog-walking and kite-flying friendly. Stop by iGNiS Glass Studio to let the kids blow their very own glass ornament, a perfect and personal keepsake.

Situated on an 80-foot bluff overlooking the Tennessee River, the Hunter Museum of American Art focuses on pieces dating from the Colonial Period onward. And, just a quick walk from the Hunter, through the Bluff View Art District is the Anna Safley Houston Museum of Decorative Arts, featuring Victorian art glass and antiques.

Across town, the Bessie Smith Cultural Center aims to promote cultural, educational and artistic excellence and celebrate African-American heritage.

For film fanatics, the annual Chattanooga Film Festival, held downtown each spring, brings in big names of the film industry from across the nation.

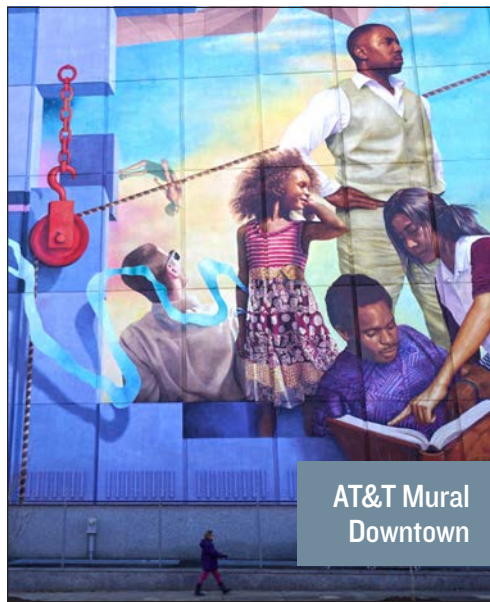

Whatever medium you're excited about, Chattanooga offers art experiences of all kinds. To view them all in the same place, mark your calendar for the nationally renowned 4 Bridges Arts Festival held here each spring.

Family reunions? Think Chattanooga

Your family may not see eye-to-eye on everything, but Chattanooga is a family reunion destination everyone can agree on. Named one of the top 45 places to go in the world by the New York Times, the Scenic City offers first-class attractions, affordable accommodations and top regional restaurants – not to mention a central location.

We know planning a family reunion isn't easy, so the first step to success is to contact the Convention & Visitors Bureau reunion specialist, Christina Petro. She can provide valuable and complimentary reunion planning assistance, including a packet of information about the greater Chattanooga area with detailed guidelines for reunion planning.

Considering Retirement?

Chattanooga Ranked Among Top Places to Retire

With no state income tax and local sales tax voted third lowest in the nation, Chattanooga is the ideal place for retirees looking to squeeze the most out of life without having to worry about the cost. Residents enjoy a low cost of living, freeing their minds — and wallets — with opportunities for outdoor activity. Chattanooga is the perfect place for any retiree looking to stay active as you spend your days strolling along the TN RiverWalk or the Walnut Street Bridge, or discover a new passion or skill through Senior Neighbors employment or volunteer programs. You can be as adventurous or relaxed as you choose. Contact us at Retire Chattanooga for a retirement packet tailored just for you.

Southern Living

While filled with outdoor activities, the Scenic City also has something for those hoping to foster their minds as well as their bodies. Retirees with an undying thirst for knowledge will be intrigued by the numerous Native American and Civil War historic sites. Lifelong learners can expand their education with continuing education courses from any of the four area colleges and universities.

Those with an artistic taste will find a rich cultural sampling at various museums, galleries and theaters while exploring the city’s attractive downtown. Decorated with outdoor sculptures, the city’s sidewalks themselves become walkthrough museums. The city has a strong focus on the arts, attracting a melting pot of artists.

Chattanooga is known for its friendly locals, and with a number of active adult and 55+ communities throughout the area, you’re sure to find friends for all your adventures.

Chattanooga offers several other resources to enhance your quality of life. The city is home to four acclaimed major hospitals equipped to cater to any and all physical needs, and there are a host of retirement options ranging from in-home or in-facility care to independent communities and co-ops.

With all these activities and benefits to look forward to, the mild climate and four seasons are just icing on your “retirement cake.”

HE FLEW OVER 300 MILES TO CHATTANOOGA BECAUSE HIS HEART TOLD HIM TO

Bob Hendrix lay in a south Alabama hospital, suffering from multiple coronary blockages, and dreading open-heart surgery the next day. Then, Bob's sister mentioned the Erlanger Heart and Lung Institute, where one of the world's top robotic surgeons performs bypasses without opening the chest. Cancelling his surgery, Bob instead flew 300 miles to consult with Dr. Larry Shears, who operated later that week. Days later, Bob was feeling great, and almost fully recovered. Is it any wonder this seasoned tourism executive considers his quick trip to Chattanooga the most rewarding of his life?

Stay in Style

Whether visiting as a family, group, couple or going solo, Chattanooga has much to offer by way of unique, top-notch accommodations for every type of traveler.

Only in the Scenic City can you spend the night in an historic traincar, live the life at a luxurious boutique hotel or B&B, or crash in a luxury hostel.

For the classic B&B experience, make your reservation at Chanticleer Inn or Garden Walk Bed & Breakfast Inn atop Lookout Mountain.

In 2017 and 2018, Downtown Chattanooga is adding 500+ luxury hotel rooms to the city. Opened in late 2017, The Westin Chattanooga (pictured above) is an elegant and exciting atmosphere in the heart of the newest downtown hotspot. The Read House is open while undergoing a $20 million renovation to be completed in Fall 2018. And the Edwin Hotel promises to bring a new level of luxury to Chattanooga when it opens this year. All of this luxury adds to a variety of upscale places to stay in Chattanooga.

The downtown area offers plenty of options including the new and impressive Chattanooga Holiday Inn Downtown.

Along I-75 and I-24 there are many new and nice lodging options to stay closer to Lookout Mountain, Hamilton Place and the Chattanooga Airport.

Cabins and vacation rentals are popular for big families and week-long stays in the area with Chattanooga Vacation Rentals, Welcome Valley Village, and Battlefield Station offering many quaint options.

No matter which way you prefer to stay, Chattanooga has excellent accommodations where you can rest your head at the end of a long day of adventuring in the city.

1872

The historic Read House is undergoing a 20 million-dollar renovation, and returning the "Great Gatsby" to downtown Chattanooga. This fabled hotel will remain open during the construction phase, just as it has since 1872, making it "The South's Oldest, Continuously Operating Hotel". In Fall 2018, you're invited to marvel at the grandeur and opulence of the Roaring '20s. Guests may also enjoy dinner at our newly appointed restaurant. Or grab a drink at the lobby bar where Churchill himself might have ordered an extra dry martini. It's not every year, the Roaring '20's come roaring back!

Getting Around Downtown

Getting around the Scenic City is an easy adventure — picking your favorite mode of transportation may be a little harder, however. Chattanooga offers a variety of ways to travel, from walking to biking to free shuttle service.

It's easy to make your way around the Scenic City. Chattanooga boasts a variety of ways to travel, from walking to biking to free shuttle service and even the new hop on and off tours aboard the Chattanooga Hop.

Our core urban area is compact and allows for easy walking to any of the main downtown attractions. Tree-lined streets, wide sidewalks, bike trails and relatively flat topography make touring downtown accessible to all ages.

Chattanooga is unique in that it also offers free public transportation by CARTA throughout the urban core. The Scenic City's focus on safeguarding and preserving the natural beauty from which its nickname derives is part of the driving force behind CARTA's zero-emission electric shuttle system, whose free mini buses run daily (except for major holidays) about every five minutes.

ACCOLADES

US News & World Report calls Chattanooga

“One of six cities worldwide that work at creating great urban experiences.”

Bike Chattanooga Bicycle Transit System allows you to pedal the city on your own terms. Bikes are available 24 hours a day, or jump on the Chattanooga Segway and Bicycle Tours and explore Chattanooga.

The city sits conveniently near access to major Interstates 75 and 24, making it easy to explore popular areas like Hamilton Place, Ooltewah, Collegedale, Hixson, East Brainerd, Lookout Mountain, as well as several convenient exits that lead right into downtown. Highways 27, 58 and 153 connect the interstates to the other popular destinations for time-saving travel.

SKIP THE SILLY. FLY SMARTER.

Driving two hours, waiting in traffic, walking what feels like a mile to stand in lines that look like a new phone just came out seems silly.
