

2018 SPRING BREAK SAFARI SCAVENGER HUNT // RIVERFRONT DISTRICT

QUESTION #	QUESTION	ANSWER	PRIZE
1 of 10: Riverfront	If you walk on me, you'll be standing over one of the longest rivers in Tennessee.		Show all your pictures to an Information Specialist at the Chattanooga Visitors Center for a special treat! Located at 215 Broad Street.
2 of 10: Riverfront	This is the place where the Trail of Tears began, but on a hot summer day it's a great spot to dip your toes in the water if you can.
3 of 10: Riverfront	If you need to catch a ride on the free electric shuttle or you're just looking for fun things to do, a visit to this breezeway could benefit you.
4 of 10: Riverfront	I'm considered a major highway in Chattanooga, but the flow of traffic is much better down here!
5 of 10: Riverfront	This family can be found along the path with a waterfront view; activities here include running, biking, and walking just to name a few.
6 of 10: Riverfront	I'm normally found on a body of water, but now I can be found near a different Big River.

7 of 10: Riverfront	Travel on me for free, to get to the place you want to be; no need to pay, you can take a ride on me all day.
8 of 10: Riverfront	I may look like I'm falling apart, but you'll have to walk by me before your Aquarium journey can start.
9 of 10: Riverfront	If you're looking for somewhere to climb, swing, and slide - a visit here will have you smiling wide.
10 of 10: Riverfront	There are no trains on these tracks, but these pay tribute to our "Chattanooga Choo Choo" past.
