

2018 SPRING BREAK SAFARI SCAVENGER HUNT // SONGBIRDS GUITAR MUSEUM

QUESTION #	QUESTION	ANSWER	PRIZE/EXTERIOR
1 of 6: Exterior	Long before cell phones, people made calls inside these small structures. Find one of them in the lobby of Terminal Station.		TBD.
2 of 6: Exterior	“Hop” to it and find statues of these amphibians near the pond in the courtyard of Terminal Station.
3 of 6: Exterior	Every time this rings an angel gets its wings. Locate it in the courtyard outside of the Revelry Room and give it a try!
4 of 6: Exterior	You don’t have to be a primate to “hang” out here. Grab a coffee or get a bite to eat at this popular spot.
5 of 6: Exterior	This room was named after the 26th president of the United States. Locate it inside Terminal Station.
6 of 6: Exterior	This Founding Father is on the ten dollar bill, and recently a popular musical was made based on his life. Locate the train car named after him.
QUESTION #	QUESTION	ANSWER	PRIZE/INTERIOR

1 of 5: Interior	Things really got “cooking” in 1934 with this lap steel guitar.		TBD.
2 of 5: Interior	This banjo wouldn’t get the “Boote” from any collection with its florentine inlay and ornate headstock.
3 of 5: Interior	This Gretsch guitar really shines in the 50’s timeline.
4 of 5: Interior	Paul McCartney famously played this brand of bass guitar with The Beatles. You can find two left-handed examples of them in the British invasion exhibit.
5 of 5: Interior	Duane Allman was famous for playing a Les Paul. He also played another model of Gibson guitar. We have several of them in different colors. Find Duane’s guitar and its case which says “Skydog.”		