

Bachelorette Girlfriend Getaway

Columbus' blend of distinctive neighborhoods, dynamic nightlife, creative arts scene and original culinary experiences give it that big city feel at only a fraction of the cost.

Here is just a sampling of what Columbus has in store for you and your girlfriends.

Day 1

Late Afternoon | Check in for your stay at Le Méridien, The Joseph, a boutique hotel at the heart of the bustling Short North Arts District.

Dinner | Head out for dinner and drinks at Forno Kitchen and Bar, featuring delicious stone-fired pizzas, and make sure you get a round of strawberry shooters before you leave!

Spend your evening bar hopping in the Short North Arts District, where you can find a wide array of nightlife.

Day 2

Late Morning | Grab brunch at The Guild House, owned by Columbus' own Cameron Mitchell, right in the hotel lobby.

Afternoon | Take a Booze Cruise on The Pedal Wagon, a pedal-powered, rolling party that stops occasionally at some of the city's favorite bars.

Not in the mood for being active? Pour your own candle at The Candle Lab, make your own bar of soap at Glenn Avenue Soap Company, adopt a wine at Camelot Cellars or blend your own custom cosmetics at Mukha Spa.

Late Afternoon | Head to The W Nail Bar for manis/pedis or The Blowout Bar to get your hair fixed up for the night.

Evening | BYOB to Studio 614 for a group painting class that will bring out the artistic side in everyone. Just down the street is Brothers Drake Meadery where they hand craft fine meads and often have live music.

Day 3

Before heading home, stop in the North Market for a quick bite, or go on a Columbus Food Adventures tour to taste the best of Columbus' food scene.
