World Renowned Car Shows

Discover your need for speed at the famed Carlisle Events auto shows, where over 500,000 attendees come from across the world to admire new and classic vehicles, including the eminent Corvette show and parade. Pit stops along the way include Williams Grove Speedway and the Rolls Royce Museum.

Authentic Artisans

The Cumberland Valley is home to many uniquely-talented artisans with work available throughout the region. Find diverse and award-winning galleries, exhibits, wood workings and one-of-a-kind crafted items. You'll be sure to leave inspired and with a memento of your Valley excursion.

Step Back in Time

In between the tree-lined streets of historic downtown Carlisle is where you'll find history on display, including the story of Olympic athlete Jim Thorpe and the Carlisle Indian School at the Cumberland County Historical Society. You'll also discover the monument to the well-known Revolutionary War heroine, Molly Pitcher.

Cumberland Valley Beer Trail

Tap, tour, and try a pint on the beer trail, where you'll find the Revolutionary War-themed Molly Pitcher Brewing Company, with a variety of different tastes and flavors. Other brew destinations include Market Cross Pub & Brewery, Appalachian Brewing Company, and Al's of Hampden, offering 100+ craft beer options.

Reconnect Outdoors

The Valley offers hundreds of miles of trails in three state parks for the whole family to explore. Uncover the rolling hills and scenic landscape of the Valley while hiking, biking or horseback riding on the Cumberland Valley Rail Trail or enjoy the lakeside beach at Laurel Lake, where you can swim, kayak and boat.

Accessible Location

Cumberland Valley is the hub of the Gettysburg, Hershey and Lancaster region with connections via Interstate 81, I-83, I-76 and US 11/15. We're conveniently located just minutes from Harrisburg International Airport and Amtrak, and within two to three hours of every major city on the Northeast Corridor including New York, Philadelphia, D.C. and Baltimore.
