DENVER

BEER TRAIL

PRESENTED BY
VISIT DENVER

1. Rock Bottom Restaurant & Brewery

Rock Bottom offers a full menu complemented by fresh, handcrafted beer brewed on-site. It's the ideal place to watch the game with a group or enjoy people-watching on the patio.

1001 16TH ST., STE. A-100, DENVER

2. Jagged Mountain Craft Brewery

Adventurous people making adventurous beer. Jagged stays true to this theme by exploring new styles and ingredients, rejecting standard styles and offering varied selections of craft beer. With some crafts topping out at an impressive 17.5% ABV, an adventurous spirit is required.

1139 20TH ST., DENVER

3. Great Divide Brewing Co.

Great Divide's flavorful beers represent a lifestyle that is uniquely Coloradan. The tap room has outdoor seating filled with locals and tourists alike, and Denver's best food trucks are often parked street-side, should you want a bite with your brew.

2201 ARAPAHOE ST., DENVER

4. Wynkoop Brewing Company

Wynkoop is a Denver institution, known for innovative brewers who will put just about anything in their beer, including Rocky Mountain oysters, gummy bears and green chilies. It's known as the brewery that brewed a neighborhood because Wynkoop helped catalyze the revitalization of Lower Downtown.

1634 18TH ST., DENVER

5. Tivoli Brewing Company

Tivoli is Colorado's oldest, most historic brewery. It originally opened in 1859 and supplied beer to the gold rush pioneers. Situated in the heart of downtown Denver's Auraria Campus, it's easily accessible via the Platte River and Cherry Creek trails.

900 AURARIA PKWY., STE. 240, DENVER

6. Denver ChopHouse & Brewery

Denver ChopHouse offers handcrafted beer brewed on-site. The beer is the perfect complement to the diverse menu featuring steaks, chops and seafood. Short on time? Pair a quick draft with the special tavern menu.

1735 19TH ST., STE. 100, DENVER

7. Renegade Brewing Company

Renegade's tap room is filled with the rumble of conversation, accented with laughter coming from friends and families. The laid-back tasting room is where the Art District on Santa Fe community comes together.

925 W. 9TH AVE., DENVER

8. Spangalang Brewery

What does Spangalang mean? The term refers to a cymbal pattern in music and is a reference to the Five Points neighborhood's rich history as a jazz hub of the West. The custom artwork and jazz themes lining the walls reflect the vibrancy and creativity of the community.

2736 WELTON ST., STE. 102, DENVER

9. Denver Beer Co.

Home to one of the largest outdoor patios in the city, Denver Beer Co. has established itself as a top spot to enjoy a craft beer during one of Denver's 300 days of sunshine.

1695 PLATTE ST., DENVER

10. Ratio Beerworks

Ratio focuses on meticulously crafted beer with a modern twist. With deep roots in punk rock music, Ratio's co-founders aim to translate the industry's DIY spirit, community and musical influences through their beer and tap room.

2920 LARIMER ST., DENVER

11. Deep Draft Brewing

Deep Draft is devoted to quality and variety, offering everything from pilsners and lagers, to stouts and porters, to IPAs and ales.

1604 E. 17TH AVE., DENVER

12. Epic Brewing

In 2013, Epic — a Salt Lake City staple — expanded its operations with a second brewery in Denver's River North Art District (RiNo). The spacious tap room has 25 taps offering seasonals and special "one off" firkins.

3001 WALNUT ST., DENVER

13. Prost Brewing Company

Prost combines the best parts of a Bavarian-style biergarten outside with a traditional bier hall layout inside, giving you the feel of an afternoon or evening spent in Munich. The signature copper brewing equipment was shipped from Germany, and the commitment to brewing authentic German-style bier holds true in their Colorado brews.

2540 19TH ST., DENVER

14. Strange Craft Beer Company

Strange Craft was the first small tap room brewery to open in Denver. With an inviting bar made of reclaimed wood, a spacious outdoor seating area with yard games, daily rotating food trucks and 12 taps of award-winning beers, there's something for everybody.

1330 ZUNI ST., UNIT M, DENVER

15. Baere Brewing Company

Baere has a strong following of locals from Denver's Baker neighborhood. The bar is made from reclaimed boxcar floors and the aesthetic is warm and comforting.

320 BROADWAY ST., UNIT E, DENVER

16. Beryl's Beer Co.

The folks at Beryl's are obsessed with making great beer and doing it differently, with unique spins on traditional recipes. Not only do they have a great lineup of traditional beers, but they also have a tap list dedicated to barrel-aged beers.

3120 BLAKE ST., DENVER

17. Black Sky Brewery

At Black Sky, heavy metal flows through the speakers while 23 taps pour house and guest brews. New Haven-style pizza, calzones and grinders are served daily, and the outdoor patio is the perfect spot for lunch.

490 SANTA FE DR., DENVER

18. TRVE Brewing Co.

TRVE visitors are greeted with an iconic, long wooden table, perfect for socializing, and the sounds of heavy metal. Although metal plays all day and night, the brewery is set up to encourage great conversation.

227 BROADWAY ST., #101, DENVER

19. Crooked Stave Artisan Beer Project

A "true sour" paradise, Crooked Stave has become a leader in the sour beer trend that's sweeping the beer community. Looking for the perfect American wild ale? Crooked Stave has it on tap!

3350 BRIGHTON BLVD., DENVER

20. Black Shirt Brewing Co.

Black Shirt is in the gritty and artsy River North Art District (RiNo). Focusing on one style, pushing its boundaries and exploring its potential, Black Shirt does one thing and does it really well: red ales.

3719 WALNUT ST., DENVER

21. Mockery Brewing

Mockery focuses on bold flavors while maintaining the utmost respect for balance and quality. Mockery doesn't restrict beer to guidelines and rules — they brew for the love of the craft and their customers. The brewery is family owned by Colorado natives who pursue the happiness in life, one fantastic beer at a time.

3501 DELGANY ST., DENVER

22. Blue Moon Brewing Company— RiNo District

Blue Moon's River North Art District location is an opportunity to share its ongoing creativity and innovative brewing. Try unique beers only available at this location and enjoy a bite from the globally inspired yet locally sourced food menu.

3750 CHESTNUT PLACE, DENVER

23. Factotum Brewhouse

The beers at Factotum are created by community members; anybody can sign up to brew, and brew sessions are customized to the guest's experience level. This unique concept means the beer menu is always rotating, although the brewery has added a flagship pilsner to the lineup.

3845 LIPAN ST., DENVER

24. Goldspot Brewing Company

Goldspot is making a name for itself in Colorado with exceptional beers that will please both craft brew newbies and beer aficionados. Located in the vibrant Berkeley neighborhood, the tasting room and outdoor patio offer the perfect spot to drink and talk beer.

4970 LOWELL BLVD., DENVER

25. Fiction Beer Company

Fiction Beer crafts award-winning beer in a variety of styles inspired by favorite books and is an easy stop on your way to or from Denver International Airport. Whether you're a book nerd, a beer geek or both, you'll feel right at home.

7101 E. COLFAX AVE., DENVER

26. Farm House at Breckenridge Brewery

Enjoy stunning mountain views from the Farm House in Littleton, about 30 minutes south of downtown Denver. The beer garden is complete with picnic tables, lush landscapes, covered seating and a "Colorado fresh" menu.

2990 BREWERY LN., LITTLETON

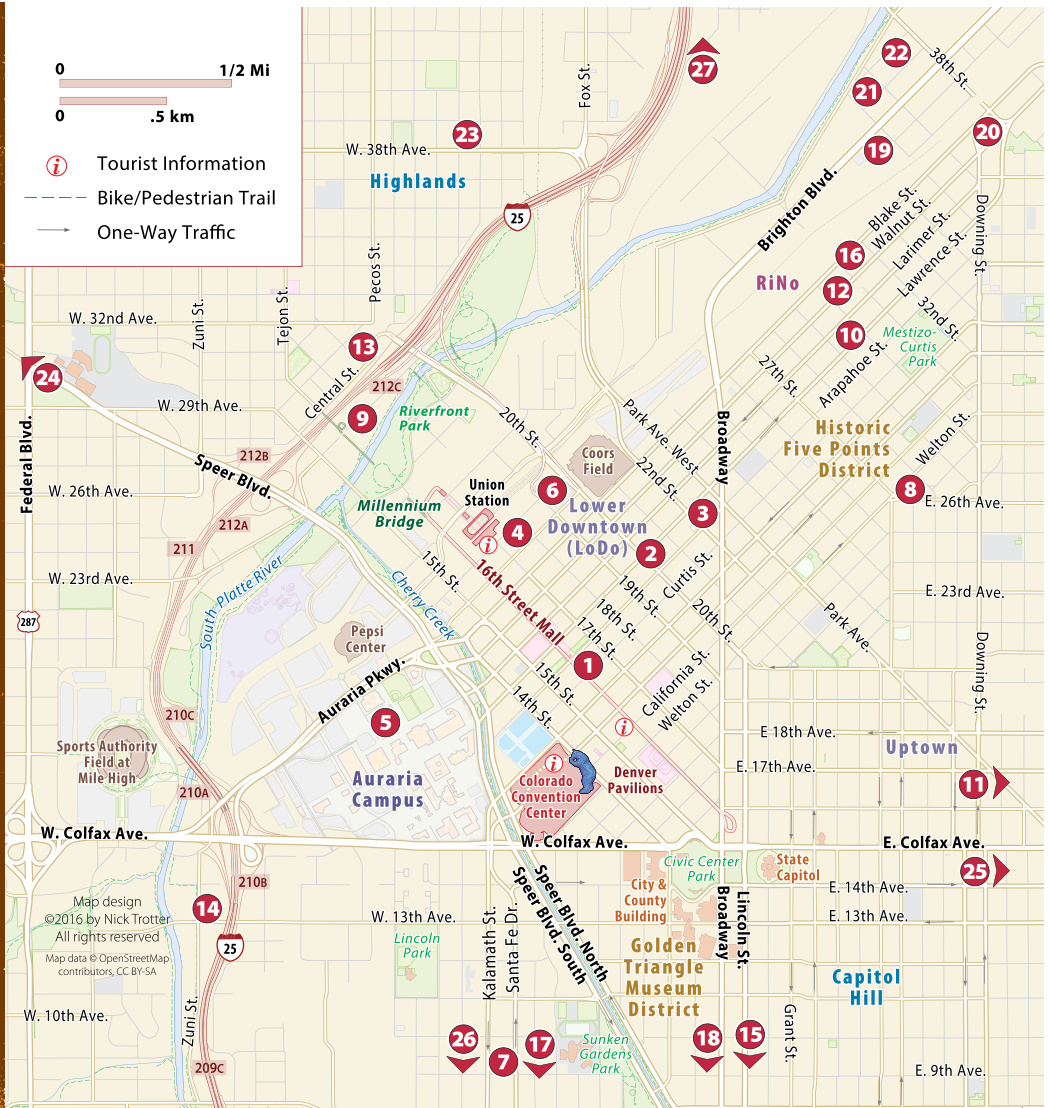

27. Avery Brewing Company

Avery is a family-owned brewery in north Boulder, about 45 minutes from downtown Denver. Year-round beers include White Rascal Belgian-Style White Ale, The Maharaja Imperial IPA and Tweak Stout.

4910 NAUTILUS CT. N., BOULDER
