

St. Patrick's Day Weekend in Dublin 2015

Thursday, March 12

- Best Legs in a Kilt Contest, Brazenhead (Dublin), time TBD. Contestants can bring their own kilt or rent one from Ha'penny to jig it out in front of a panel of judges and roaring crowd. There will also be live entertainment from bagpipers and Irish dancers. (21+ event)

Friday, March 13

- "Irish 5 for $5," Whole Foods, 5-7 pm. Sample 5 wines paired with 5 Irish cheeses and foods for just $5.

Saturday, March 14

- Pancake breakfast, Sells Middle School, 7-11 am. The greenest weekend of the year kicks off with a pancake breakfast followed by the Inflation Celebration where the parade balloons come to life.
- St. Patrick's Day parade, Historic Dublin, 11 am. Marching bands, bagpipers, Irish dancers, giant balloons and even St. Patrick himself march through the streets of Dublin.
- Blarney Bash, OCLC campus, 12-11 pm. Immediately following the parade, the biggest SPD party in the city kicks off featuring live Irish music and dancing throughout the day. There will also be food and beverage trucks. $5 entry, 12 and under are free.
- St. Patrick's Day 4-miler, Kinsale Golf and Fitness Club, 6-9 pm. Participants in this M3S Sports event walk/run the 4 mile course through the neighborhood surrounding Kinsale Golf and Fitness Club. Following the race, participants and guests can a St. Patrick's Day celebration and concert.