CANOEING

1 Stone Lagoon

Reed beds, ospreys, cormorant rookeries, beaches and coves, this lagoon is a paddler's paradise. There's camping and a boat ramp.

OCEAN KAYAKING

2 Trinidad Bay

Sheltered launch at Trinidad Pier gives access to scattered offshore rocks and coves with unsurpassed fishing and wildlife viewing.

RIVER RAFTING

3 Trinity River

Depending on the time of year it's Class II to V through The Slot, Hell Hole and Pearly Gates; outfitters are based in Willow Creek.

TOURING KAYAK

4 Humboldt Bay

Miles of shoreline, teeming wildlife, islands, history and views make this bay a winner (along with numerous convenient put-ins).

MOUNTAIN BIKING

5 Arcata Community Forest

This 790-acre forest is crisscrossed by trails following old logging skid roads. Hilly and steep with challenging rides for all skill levels.

FAMILY BIKE RIDE

6 Hammond Trail

Access points from Mad River bridge to Clam Beach County Park. Level paved trail with ocean and wooded views; Hiller Park is the half-way point.
