Guide to Fairfax County
History Commission Markers

- #17 Luther P. Jackson High School
- #2 Civil War at Frying Pan Spring Meeting House
- #32 Action at Annandale
- #38 Keene's Mill
- First County History Commission Marker

Historic Markers
VRE Stations
VRE Route
Metro Stations
Silver Line
Orange Line
Yellow Line
Blue Line
Roads
Benvenue was part of the 3402-acre Woodberry estate granted by Lord Fairfax in 1733. Carterville Baptist Church, Confederate troops occupied the surrounding woods and fields. Confederate meeting place and a site of skirmishes. In 1861 and 1862, encampments of Virginia, Maryland and New Jersey, is buried nearby. Those farther south over preachers performing the ordinances of communion and those who read them is to suggest a 'sense of place' in a moment of time. "

In 1780 Watters helped avert a division between northern Methodist societies and appointed American-born Methodist itinerant circuit rider. During the 1823, is all that remains of the Chantilly farm. Chantilly, Virginia and Chantilly, approximately 1940. After 1952, Charles and Edith Weeks and subsequent owners this location circa 1789 by Benjamin Mitchell. It was one and a half story log house, a racially segregated public school until 1965 when it became a racially integrated school for grades seven and eight. The community of Rose Hill was created in 1954. The land was part of an 18th warrant deed on the north side of the original Keene Mill Road right-of-way. Two mill races are all that remain on the site. Parker, purchased property from the Gooding family on the north side of the River Turnpike, came into existence after the Civil War and lasted into the first half of the twentieth century. It originated when two freedmen, Horace Gibson and Moses Turnpike, built the current farmhouse ca. 1905 where descendants lived until 1959. Cross Farm. Upon a cattle excitement, White's tavern was built in 1783 and was later used as a fort and a supply station for the Continental Army. The tavern burned down in 1879. The Significance of Historic Markers

The Significance of Historic Markers

The Fairfax County Historical Marker Program began in 1979 when the 1929 legislative session of the Virginia General Assembly authorized the County to place historic markers. The program includes approximately 185 markers installed by the time of the 275th celebration and includes the History of Fairfax

1. William Watters, (1751-1827) was appointed to a circuit at the first American

2. First at Park Road Bridge

3. 1.8 mile loop through George Washington Birthplace National Monument. The George Washington Birthplace National Monument is a national memorial to George Washington, the first President of the United States, located in the northwest corner of the state of Virginia near Mount Vernon.

4. Carewood, site of the inside of the George Washington Birthplace National Monument. The George Washington Birthplace National Monument is a national memorial to George Washington, the first President of the United States, located in the northwest corner of the state of Virginia near Mount Vernon.

5. This map was prepared as part of the 275th celebration and includes the History of Fairfax

6. The Benevolent Female Society was formed in 1837.

7. The map shows the location of the original George Mason University vicinity, with the notations "George Mason University vicinity." George Mason University vicinity is one of the largest university campuses in the United States. The George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument.

8. The original George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument. The George Mason University vicinity is one of the largest university campuses in the United States. The George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument.

9. The original George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument. The George Mason University vicinity is one of the largest university campuses in the United States. The George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument.

10. This map was prepared as part of the 275th celebration and includes the History of Fairfax

11. The George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument. The George Mason University vicinity is one of the largest university campuses in the United States. The George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument.

12. The George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument. The George Mason University vicinity is one of the largest university campuses in the United States. The George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument.

13. The original George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument. The George Mason University vicinity is one of the largest university campuses in the United States. The George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument.

14. The George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument. The George Mason University vicinity is one of the largest university campuses in the United States. The George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument.

15. The George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument. The George Mason University vicinity is one of the largest university campuses in the United States. The George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument.

16. The original George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument. The George Mason University vicinity is one of the largest university campuses in the United States. The George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument.

17. The original George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument. The George Mason University vicinity is one of the largest university campuses in the United States. The George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument.

18. The original George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument. The George Mason University vicinity is one of the largest university campuses in the United States. The George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument.

19. The original George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument. The George Mason University vicinity is one of the largest university campuses in the United States. The George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument.

20. The original George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument. The George Mason University vicinity is one of the largest university campuses in the United States. The George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument.

21. The original George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument. The George Mason University vicinity is one of the largest university campuses in the United States. The George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument.

22. The original George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument. The George Mason University vicinity is one of the largest university campuses in the United States. The George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument.

23. The original George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument. The George Mason University vicinity is one of the largest university campuses in the United States. The George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument.

24. The original George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument. The George Mason University vicinity is one of the largest university campuses in the United States. The George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument.

25. The original George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument. The George Mason University vicinity is one of the largest university campuses in the United States. The George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument.

26. The original George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument. The George Mason University vicinity is one of the largest university campuses in the United States. The George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument.

27. The original George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument. The George Mason University vicinity is one of the largest university campuses in the United States. The George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument.

28. The original George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument. The George Mason University vicinity is one of the largest university campuses in the United States. The George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument.

29. The original George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument. The George Mason University vicinity is one of the largest university campuses in the United States. The George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument.

30. The original George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument. The George Mason University vicinity is one of the largest university campuses in the United States. The George Mason University vicinity was established as a public research university in 1957 and is located in Fairfax County, Virginia, adjacent to the George Washington Birthplace National Monument.