

Fairfax County, Virginia
Connect with America

DISTINCTIVE VENUES

Host your next event in an unforgettable place.

George Washington's Mount Vernon — Lantern-lit lanes, breathtaking Potomac River views, and exclusive access to the most visited historic estate in America make Mount Vernon one of the most desirable event locations in the Washington, DC area. From black-tie galas to intimate tours of the mansion, Mount Vernon offers unforgettable experiences for groups of all sizes.

National Air and Space Museum Steven F. Udvar-Hazy Center — Host a one-of-a-kind event among the pioneers of flight. The soaring 10-story Boeing Aviation Hangar will leave your guests gazing in awe.

The Atrium at Meadowlark — Host your event amid live plants and flowers in this beautiful, glass-walled atrium nestled in the Meadowlark Botanical Gardens. Featuring exposed brick walls, a glass-enclosed cathedral ceiling, and a large terrace overlooking the gardens, this remarkable space seats up to 230 guests, with standing room for 300.

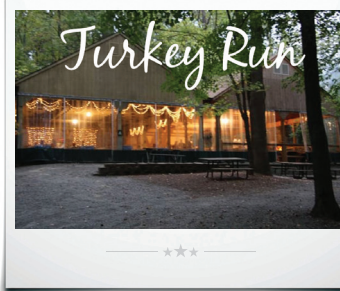

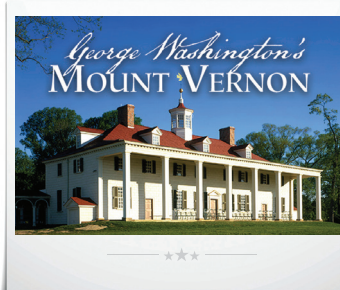

Wineries — Transport your guests to the picturesque Virginia countryside for a rustic, yet elegant experience at one of our two wineries. Rich in history and charm, they make the perfect backdrop for an intimate gathering or large-scale celebration.

The Pavilions at Turkey Run — Nestled in a peaceful, wooded setting, The Pavilions offer a unique facility perfect for picnics, parties, receptions, meetings, themed events, and team-building exercises. Whether for a charming daytime event or a magical party under the stars, The Pavilions is an enchanted setting.

The Barns at Wolf Trap — For an extraordinary off-site event, take in the sounds of music in the warm and inviting atmosphere of The Barns at Wolf Trap, offering a sophisticated yet casual space unlike any other. These truly unique venues can also be rented for private functions on non-performance nights.

Convene — Convene is a technologically advanced conference center with six resource-rich conference rooms and reception facilities for up to 300 people.

Fairfax Hunt Club — The Fairfax Hunt Club is a charming venue perfect for intimate events. Located on 12 acres adjacent to Lake Fairfax in Reston, Virginia, the Hunt Club offers superb food, attentive service, and a memorable facility.

For more information, visit fxva.com

WE HAVE THE SETTING FOR EVERY EVENT.

Fairfax County boasts nearly 70 unique venues and distinctive spaces that provide the perfect backdrop for your one-of-a-kind event. From historic grandeur on the grounds of Mount Vernon to the modern wonders of the National Air and Space Museum, to intimate gathering spaces in wooded retreats, make the location the star of your next meeting, dinner, or celebration.

● NATIONAL TREASURES/HISTORIC SITES

1. The Barns at Wolf Trap
2. George Mason's Gunston Hall
3. George Washington's Mount Vernon
4. River Farm
5. Smithsonian's National Air and Space Museum Steven F. Udvar-Hazy Center
6. Sully Historic Site
7. Woodlawn Historic Site
8. The Workhouse Arts Center

● OUTDOOR AND CHARMING

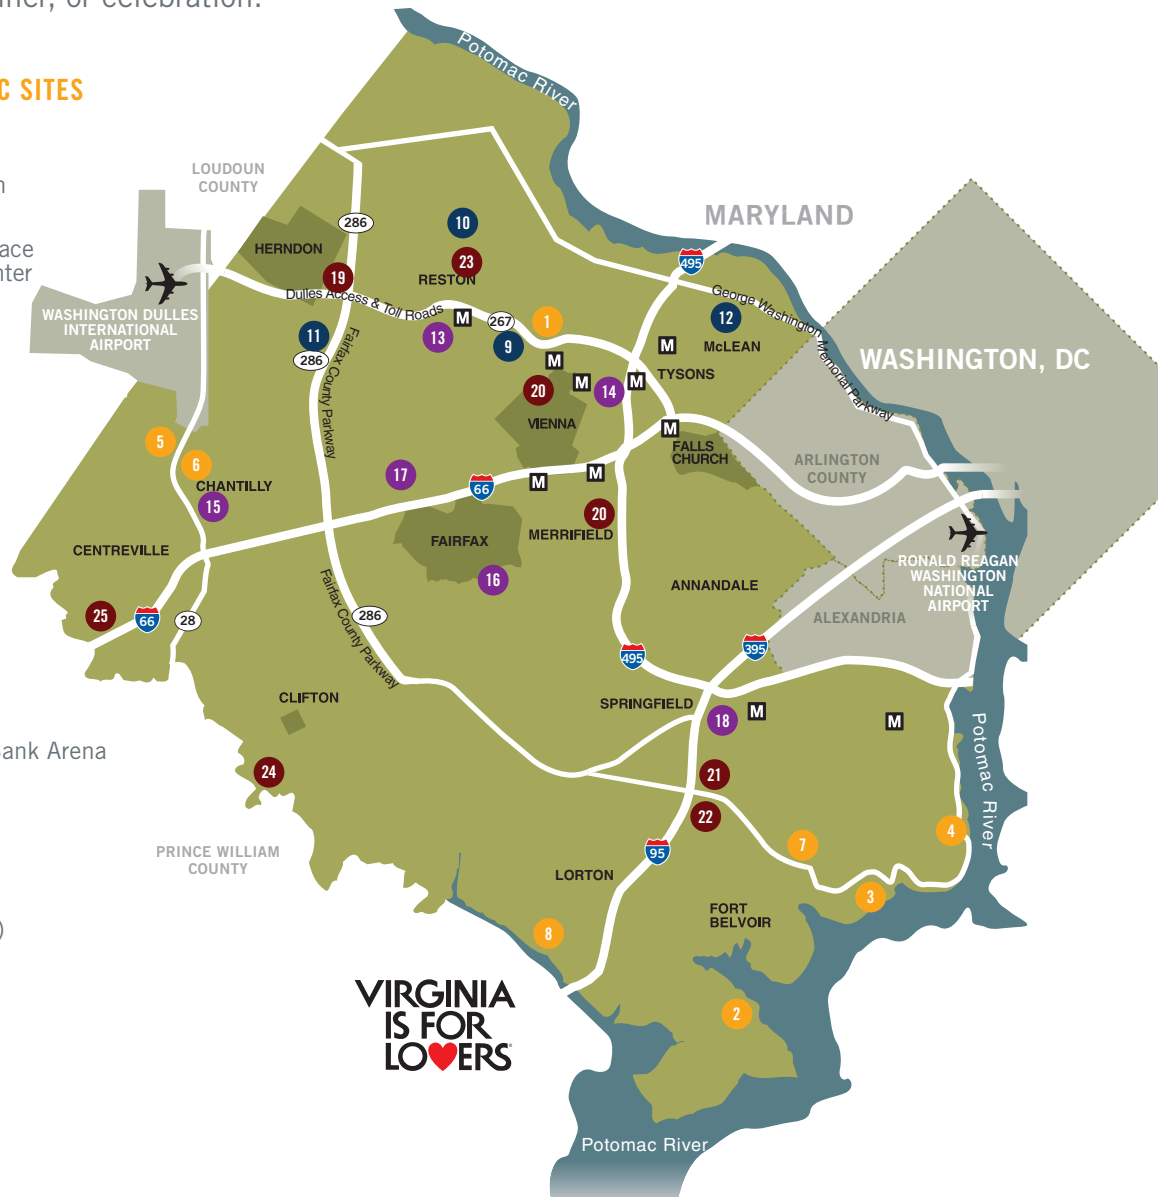

9. The Atrium at Meadowlark
10. Fairfax Hunt Club
11. The Pavilion at Frying Pan Farm Park
12. The Pavilions at Turkey Run

● EVENT AND MEETINGS VENUES

13. Bechtel Conference Center
14. Convene
15. Dulles Expo & Conference Center
16. George Mason University's EagleBank Arena
17. Waterford at Fair Oaks
18. Waterford at Springfield

● WINERIES & BREWERIES

19. Aslin Beer Company
20. Caboose Brewing Co. (2 locations)
21. Fair Winds Brewing Company
22. Forge Brew Works
23. Lake Anne Brew House
24. Paradise Springs Winery
25. The Winery at Bull Run

ADVANTAGES FOR CHOOSING FAIRFAX COUNTY

- Choose from a variety of upscale and charming venues for a truly unique off-site experience.
- Fairfax County hotels often offer highly advantageous rates compared with their DC counterparts.
- Many Fairfax County hotels and event venues feature free and ample parking.
- Low food and beverage taxes help keep costs manageable.
- Many groups report an increase of 8 to 10% participation, or more, due to Fairfax County's desirable, and highly marketable, location.
- We put Visit Fairfax's award-winning service at your fingertips!