

WOLF TRAP

As the nation's only national park dedicated to the performing arts, Wolf Trap offers three unique venues: the majestic Filene Center features a magical outdoor setting for world-class performances of every genre during the summer months; The Barns feature amazing acoustics for contemporary and classical concerts in the cooler months; and the Children's Theatre-in-the-Woods can be found down a meadow path, nestled in the trees, and full of happy children. These beloved venues have entertained guests for generations.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Bring your own picnic, complete with wine, to Wolf Trap's Filene Center and dine on the lawn before or during an unforgettable performance under the stars.
- Wolf Trap serves as the summer home of the National Symphony Orchestra, where they perform in front of giant movie screens showing classics such as Star Wars, The Lord of the Rings Trilogy, and Looney Tunes!
- From chart-topping pop artists to ballet to Broadway-style musicals, Wolf Trap easily offers one of the most eclectic performance schedules in the national capital region.
