ACCESSIBLE SEATING

There are various accessible and companion seats available throughout Canvas Stadium. When purchasing seats by phone or in person, please indicate to the ticket seller that you require accessible seating. For online orders, simply select your accessible seats using our interactive map.

ACCESSIBLE PARKING

Accessible parking, with a state-issued hang tag, is available for purchase in parking lot 575 (located just off of College Avenue, on Lake Street). A complimentary shuttle service is provided from the parking lot to Canvas Stadium, with drop-off locations at the southeast and northwest corners of the stadium.

ADVANCED TICKET SALES

BY PHONE: Call (800) 491-RAMS (7267) and charge your individual game ticket order to MasterCard, Visa, American Express or Discover. .

ONLINE: Order your individual game tickets online by visiting the Colorado State Athletics official website at CSURams.com/tickets.

TICKET DELIVERY OPTIONS: Tickets can be placed at Will Call or mailed ($5 charge) or received via mobile delivery or print at home ($1 charge). All tickets will be assessed a $2 facility fee.

IN-PERSON: Tickets may be purchased in person at the Rams Ticket Office at the McGraw Athletic Center (west side of Moby Arena), Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Accepted forms of payment include cash, personal checks, MasterCard, Visa, American Express or Discover.

GAME DAY: Advance ticket sales windows are located at the northwest corner of Canvas Stadium, off of Pitkin Street. These windows open four (4) hours prior to kickoff and close after halftime.

AGE RESTRICTION (TICKETS)

Children under the age of two who are sitting on the lap of an adult do not need a game ticket. Children who have reached their second birthday must have a valid game ticket to gain entrance to Canvas Stadium and are permitted seating access only in their ticketed location.

ALCOHOL POLICY

TAILGATING: Tailgating with alcohol will be allowed on the Colorado State University campus during home football games in designated parking lots and programmed areas within the borders of Shields Street, Laurel Street, Mason Street, Lake Street and parking lot #440. All alcohol must be kept in designated parking lots and approved programmed tailgating areas. Open containers will not be allowed outside of these areas. ID check stands will be located throughout campus to issue wristbands for alcohol consumption.

IN-VENUE: No alcoholic beverages may be brought through the gates of Canvas Stadium. Colorado law prohibits the sale of alcoholic beverages to persons under the age of 21. Individuals who are 21 and have the proper identification (with proof of age), will receive a wristband denoting their ability to purchase alcoholic beverages. Individuals without wristbands will not be served. ID checks and wrist-banding stations are located throughout Canvas Stadium. Alcohol sales will cease at the end of halftime. Guests may not be in possession of more than two alcoholic beverages at any time.

ALL GENDER/FAMILY RESTROOMS

There are all-gender/family restrooms located throughout Canvas Stadium which are available to all individuals including those with small children, elderly guests or anyone with a disability. See RESTROOMS for locations.

ALMA MATER

"Hail to thee, our Alma Mater, Colorado State. Memories are everlasting of this place so great! May thy Green and Gold unite us, loyal ever be. Colorado State, our Alma Mater. Hail, all hail, to thee."

ANIMALS

All animals are prohibited inside Canvas Stadium except for service dogs for individuals with disabilities or service dogs in training.

AUTOMATED TELLER MACHINES (ATMs)

There are a total of four locations where ATMs can be found at Canvas Stadium. The locations are: outside the stadium, next to the Ram Zone store (northwest corner of stadium, off of Pitkin Street), and in the stadium, behind sections 103, 124 and 138.

BABY DIAPER CHANGING STATIONS

Baby diaper changing stations are located in all Men's, Women's and All-Gender/Family restrooms throughout Canvas Stadium. See RESTROOMS for locations.

BANNERS, FLAGS & SIGNS

Banners, flags and signs are permitted, provided they are football related and in good taste as determined by Colorado State University. They may not be hung or displayed on any part of the playing surface or in any way that obstructs another guest's view of the game or stadium advertising, and must not pose a threat of injury to the guest or others. Flags affixed to poles or sticks are prohibited.

BICYCLE DISMOUNT ZONES

Bicyclists will be required to dismount their bicycle and walk it through pedestrian areas on all four sides of Canvas stadium including the area east of the stadium, between Center Avenue and Meridian Avenue. The pedestrian mall will be open to bicycles.

BICYCLE PARKING

Colorado State University has over 16,000 bike parking spaces with a majority located adjacent to academic buildings on the eastern side of campus (east from Canvas Stadium). Please be aware bike parking around the perimeter of the stadium is prohibited on game days. Bicyclists are encouraged to park once they arrive on campus and to secure their bicycle with a U-Lock.

BICYCLE ROUTES TO CSU AND STADIUM

CSU is one of five platinum bicycle-friendly universities in the nation. Various off-street trails and bikeways deliver visitors to campus along with three perimeter underpasses and many signalized bicycle and pedestrian crossings. Google Maps can provide bicyclists with directional route-finding options to campus and Canvas Stadium.

BICYCLE SHARE

Game day visitors seeking to ride Pace Bike Share bikes to campus will be able to check in their bicycle at bicycle racks located outside the stadium security perimeter. Look for specific signage on game day.

BICYCLE VALET

Colorado State Athletics is proud to offer a bicycle valet for fans who choose to bike to campus on game days. The bicycle valet is located on Pitkin Street, just east of Canvas Stadium. Fans' bicycles will be available for drop off beginning four hours prior to kickoff and for pick up until one hour after a game ends. Bikes left later than an hour will be turned over to the CSU Police Department for storage (impound charges may apply).

BOTTLES AND CANS

Glass bottles and aluminum/metal cans are prohibited inside Canvas Stadium. Guests in possession of these items inside the gates of the stadium may be subject to ejection. Guests are allowed to bring in empty water bottles that are crushable and don't have a lid/cap.

BUSES

Colorado State University and CSU Athletics have partnered with the City of Fort Collins and Transfort to provide game day transit services to Canvas Stadium. Special game day service includes enhanced service on MAX (see MAX), increased service west of campus on Route 3 and a shuttle for ADA parking on Lake Street (parking lot 575, see Accessible Parking). Regular Transfort service to the Campus Transit Center will continue to operate with detours on game day.

Fans have various ways to see bus routes and track arrivals. Fans can download the Ride Transfort App (Apple App Store or Google Play Store) that identifies nearby stops and boarding times. Fans can also text 41411 with the message TFORT and a bus stop ID number (shown on all bus stop signs) for bus arrival times. For automated bus arrival information, dial (970) 221-6620.

BUSTANG

Fans coming from the Denver Metro Area and looking for a convenient way to get to Canvas Stadium are encouraged to check out Bustang. Bustang is the Colorado Department of Transportation's (CDOT) interregional express bus service connecting major populations, employment centers and local transit entities along the I-25 and I-70 corridors. For more information, visit RideBustang.com.

CAM THE RAM

CAM the Ram is the official mascot of Colorado State University. His name reflects CSU history in that the letters stand for Colorado Agricultural and Mechanical College, the University's former name. CAM has been a Colorado State University tradition for more than 60 years. Anyone who has been to a home football game knows that CAM is the center of every game-day experience. In addition to home games, CAM proudly represents CSU at other events throughout the year. CAM is cared for by a group of student volunteers called Ram Handlers. They are responsible for CAM's daily care, training and prepping him for public appearances. The overall CAM the Ram program is operated by the CSU Alumni Association. The two-legged, costumed version of CAM is managed by the Colorado State University Spirit Squad.

CAM'S KIDS CLUB

The official club for Rams fans 12 years and younger. Annual membership is $35 and includes tickets to one (1) predetermined football game, five (5) predetermined men's basketball games, all regular season home volleyball matches and women's basketball games, official T-shirt, membership card and lanyard, quarterly newsletter, birthday card and so much more! For more information, visit CSURams.com/camskidsclub or call (970) 491-5897.

CAMERAS

Cameras are permitted in Canvas Stadium for both fans (lenses less than 4" in length) and working news media. All photos taken in the stadium must be for editorial or personal use only and may not be used for advertising, promotions or other trade purposes, or any other commercial or promotional endeavor, without the permission of Colorado State University. Tripods (except working media), monopods and selfie sticks are not permitted in Canvas Stadium.

CANNON

No sound is sweeter to Ram fans or more disheartening to opponents than the boom of the Colorado State University Army ROTC cannon at CSU Football games. The ROTC has been firing the cannon for every point scored by the Rams as well as kickoffs since 1920.

CELLULAR PHONES

Use of cellular phones is permitted, provided their use does not interfere with another guest's ability to enjoy the atmosphere of the stadium. Colorado State University reserves the right to ask any guest to discontinue use of a cell phone in or adjacent to any seating area.

CHEERLEADERS

The Colorado State University Cheer team consist of 32 males and females. Fans can see them cheering at football, volleyball, and men's and women's basketball games. The cheerleaders also support various University events and activities as well as are involved in many community events. They strive to create an exciting and spirited environment for all Rams teams and fans through their passionate cheering and constant pride. In 2016, the CSU Spirit Squad was recognized as the top spirit group in the Mountain West conference. For more information on the cheerleaders, visit CSURams.com.

CLEAR BAG POLICY

Canvas Stadium regulations allow clear bags and containers 12" x 6" x 12" or smaller to be permitted in the gates as well as small clutch bags no larger than 4.5" x 6.5". All permitted bags are subject to search both upon entry and within the stadium (see SEARCHES). All gates utilize "Inspection Lanes" for guests carrying permitted items. Canvas Stadium regulations also prohibit guests from bringing certain items into the stadium. See PROHIBITED ITEMS.

CLOTHING

Guests are prohibited from wearing or displaying profane or offensive materials. This includes, but is not limited to, clothing, tattoos, body art or anything displayed on a guest's body that is deemed as profane or offensive by Colorado State University. A guest may be asked to remove, reverse, cover or add clothing so the image or wording is no longer visible. Clothing which conceals a guest's face is prohibited, including but not limited to, costumes and masks.

COACH BOBO RADIO SHOW

The Mike Bobo Coors Light Coach's Show takes place every Wednesday night during the season at 7 p.m. MT at CB & Potts at the Foothills Mall in Fort Collins. The hour-long show, featuring Colorado State Football news, analysis and interviews, is broadcast on 102.9 FM (KARS) in Fort Collins, 104.7 FM/1340 AM (KDCC) in Denver, 1140 AM (KNAB) in Burlington, 105.5 FM (KRDO) in Colorado Springs, 920 AM (KLMR) in Lamar, 92.9 FM (KDCC) in Longmont, 100.1 FM (KRFD) in Sterling and 100.9 FM (KNEC) in Yuma.

APPROVED BAGS

- Bags that are clear plastic, vinyl or PVC and do not exceed 12"W x 6"D x 12"H.
- One-gallon clear plastic freezer bag (Ziploc bag or similar).
- Small clutch bag approximately the size of a hand (4.5" x 6.5" or smaller), with or without a handle or strap. This can be carried separately or within a plastic bag.

COLORADO STATE UNIVERSITY

Colorado State University is one of the nation's top public research universities and continues to be an institution on the rise. CSU was founded as Colorado Agricultural College in 1870, six years before the Colorado Territory was granted statehood, and was one of 68 land-grant colleges established by President Abraham Lincoln's signing of the Morrill Act. CSU's world-class research attracts more than $300 million in research funding every year. The University offers 76 undergraduate degree programs, 105 graduate degree programs, 27 professional master's degree programs and the prestigious Professional Veterinary Medicine program. Total enrollment at CSU has grown to more than 33,000 students. For more information on Colorado State University, visit colostate.edu.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH AND DONATIONS

Colorado State Athletics' primary community support is directed to nonprofit organizations focusing on the following interests: child and youth education, mentorship, civic collaboration, and health and wellness programs. Descriptions of these programs and initiatives can be found on CSURams.com. If your nonprofit organization is seeking a donation of game tickets or an auction item, please contact our Community Outreach office at (970) 491-2003 or patrick.krza@colostate.edu.

CONCESSIONS

ELECTRONIC CIGARETTES

Electronic cigarettes, vaporizers and other similar devices are prohibited from use in Canvas Stadium as well as on the Colorado State University campus.

ELEVATORS

Elevators are restricted to premium ticket holders, individuals with accessibility needs, elderly guests and families with small children. Elevators are located behind sections 103, 114, 140 and in the West Tower (premium seating access only).

EMERGENCY PROCEDURES

In the event of an emergency at Canvas Stadium, please follow instructions and directions from ushers, the Public Address Announcer and police and fire officers. If an emergency requires evacuation from the stadium, directions will be given over the public address system and the scoreboard. Please contact an usher if you have any questions.

ENTERING AND EXITING THE STADIUM

For your safety, Colorado State University requires all guests and employees entering Canvas Stadium be searched for prohibited items (see PROHIBITED ITEMS and SEARCHES). This includes a thorough inspection of any jackets, coats, packages, bags, purses and other containers brought to any of the three main entry gates. Guests and employees must also pass through metal detectors to gain entry. See METAL DETECTORS. Following the game, guests are asked to exit Canvas Stadium through the same gate that they entered the stadium through. Be advised, there is a no re-entry policy in place.

FACEBOOK

Follow Colorado State Athletics and CSU Football on Facebook at facebook.com/CSURams and facebook.com/CSUFootball. See SOCIAL MEDIA.

There are family/all-gender restrooms located throughout Canvas Stadium which are available to all individuals including those with small children, elderly guests or anyone with a disability. They also include baby diaper changing stations. See RESTROOMS for locations.

FAN ASSISTANCE TEXTING SERVICE

A text messaging service is available inside Canvas Stadium that allows fans an opportunity to communicate directly with event management personnel on important security and guest services issues. Fans needing assistance should text their location and the issue to (970) 988-9386. You can also contact an usher or stop by the nearest GUEST RELATIONS CENTER to report a problem. Standard text message rates and other charges may apply.

FAN CODE OF CONDUCT

Ram Pride means cheering on Colorado State with integrity – toward the Rams and their opponents. Colorado State University and CSU Athletics are committed to creating a safe, fun and enjoyable fan experience for everyone who attends a CSU event. All fans are expected to show respect, courtesy and sportsmanship before, during and after all games.

CODE OF CONDUCT BEST PRACTICES:

- Keep cheers positive.
- Show respect for student-athletes, coaches, game officials/referees and fellow fans.
- No foul language or gestures – don't ruin the game for others.
- If you drink, do it legally and responsibly.
- Stay off the playing area and don't throw anything onto the field.
- Whether you stand or sit, be respectful to those around you.
- Be a good sport, especially to visiting teams and their fans. Remember, you represent CSU!
- Show your Ram Pride before, during and after the game.

FIGHT SONG

“Fight on you stalwart Ram team, on to the goal!

Tear the (Opponent’s) line asunder as down the field we thunder.

Knights of the Green and Gold, fight with all your might!

Fight on you stalwart Ram team,

Fight! Fight! Fight!”

FIREARMS AND WEAPONS

Firearms and other weapons are strictly prohibited in Canvas Stadium and on the Colorado State University campus.

FIRST AID STATIONS

For the safety of guests in Canvas Stadium, first aid stations are located behind sections 103 and 116. If you need assistance or you are with someone who does, contact the nearest first aid station, usher or law enforcement officer. Each station has trained first responders to provide assistance, and if necessary, advanced emergency medical support will also be available throughout the game. If necessary, fans should call 911 for any emergency situations in the stadium that require immediate medical assistance.

LICENSING AND TRADEMARKS

The mission of Colorado State University Licensing and Trademarks is to promote the University's image while protecting its trademark rights. CSU works with licensed vendors to ensure that the public can properly identify officially licensed quality products and services bearing the word marks, logos and symbols associated with the University to build awareness of CSU and generate revenue. For more information on Licensing and Trademarks, visit CSURams.com or email michael.ruvolo@colostate.edu.

LICENSE PLATES

Whether you are a graduate, student or proud fan, the Colorado State University license plate is a great way to show your Ram Pride! License plates are available to Colorado residents who make a one-time $100 donation to the CSU Alumni Association supporting the Legacy Scholarship Fund or the Alumni Programs/Activities Fund. For more information, visit alumni.colostate.edu.

LIMOUSINES

The drop-off area for individuals who are being taken to a game via limousine is located off of College Avenue, on Pitkin Street, at the Newton's Corner turnabout. Follow temporary traffic signage as well as directions given by law enforcement officers and parking attendants.

LOST AND FOUND

Colorado State Athletics cannot be responsible for recovery, storage, safekeeping, preservation or return of any lost or found item at Canvas Stadium. With that understanding, any item that has been lost or found during a game should be reported to the GUEST RELATIONS CENTERS behind sections 104 and 140. Items can also be turned over to ushers and police officers. After games, all found items are provided to the CSU Police Department.

LOST CHILDREN

Every child should be told to contact a stadium representative should he or she become lost. A lost child will be taken to the GUEST RELATIONS CENTERS behind sections 104 and 140. Parents of lost children should follow the same procedure. Parents are encouraged to place tickets in children's pockets in case of separation.

LOST TICKETS

Lost or forgotten tickets will be replaced for a non-refundable $5 processing fee per ticket. Please contact the Rams Ticket Office on non-game days by calling (800) 491-RAMS (7267) or visit in-person the Rams Ticket Office at the McGraw Athletic Center (west side of Moby Arena), Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. On game days, visit the Rams Ticket Office at Canvas Stadium (northwest corner of stadium, off of Pitkin Street) which opens four (4) hours prior to kickoff.

LYFT

The drop-off area for individuals who are being taken to a game via Lyft is located off of College Avenue, on Pitkin Street, at the Newton's Corner turnabout. Follow temporary traffic signage as well as directions given by law enforcement officers and parking attendants.

MARCHING BAND

The Colorado State University Marching Band is one of the premier college bands in the country, whose performances have been heard by millions of fans. The band supports CSU teams and entertains audiences with music ranging from traditional school songs to the latest hits. Today, the Colorado State University Marching Band is a dynamic student organization whose membership numbers over 270 students, representing every college on campus. As bearers of tradition, and a public face of the University, Fort Collins, and the state of Colorado for over 117 years, CSU Marching Band members exemplify the "Proud to be a CSU Ram" motto.

MARIJUANA

Know the law about marijuana use in Fort Collins and on the Colorado State University campus. It is illegal to consume marijuana in public. Possession of, smoking, ingesting or otherwise consuming marijuana is prohibited in all areas of Canvas Stadium as well as on the Colorado State University campus.

MAX (BUS RAPID TRANSIT SERVICE)

Colorado State University and CSU Athletics have partnered with the City of Fort Collins and Transfort to provide free ridership on MAX Bus Rapid Transit (BRT) on football game days. MAX serves major activity and employment centers throughout Fort Collins including Midtown, CSU and Downtown. MAX links with other Transfort bus routes, Park-N-Rides, the City's bicycle/pedestrian trail system and other local and regional transit routes to provide seamless service for passengers. MAX follows a dedicated transit-only guideway (its own road) and mixed-traffic streets that run parallel to the BNSF Railway between the South Transit Center (south of Harmony Road) and Downtown. It is served by 12 stations and stops. The primary stops on game day, near the Colorado State University campus, are the Prospect and University stations. For more information on MAX, visit ridetransfort.com/max.

MEDIA INQUIRIES

All media inquiries regarding the Colorado State Football team or CSU Athletics should be directed to Paul Kirk, Associate Athletic Director for Communications. Phone: (970) 988-3482 or email: paul.kirk@colostate.edu.

MERCHANDISE/RAM ZONE

The Ram Zone, the official team store of Colorado State Athletics, is located at the following locations within Canvas Stadium on game day – behind sections 116, 128 and 138. There are also several satellite locations and mobile stores set up on the main concourse. On game days, the main stadium Ram Zone location (northwest corner of stadium, off of Pitkin Street) opens four hours prior to kickoff.

On non-game days, visit the Ram Zone location at Canvas Stadium (northwest corner of stadium, off of Pitkin Street) Monday-Friday, 2 p.m. to 7 p.m., Saturday, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Sunday, 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. The Ram Zone in Old Town Fort Collins is located at 172 N. College Avenue and is open Monday-Thursday, 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., Friday and Saturday, 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. and Sunday 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Fans can also shop online anytime at CSURams.com.

METAL DETECTORS

Metal detectors will be installed at all Canvas Stadium entrances prior to the start of the 2018 football season. Colorado State University requires that all guests and employees entering the stadium pass through a metal detector. Alternative accommodations for screening will be provided to those who need it. Guests who refuse screening will be denied entry. The metal detectors at Canvas Stadium will be used by stadium staff to detect security threats and prevent banned items from entering the facility. For a full list of banned items, please see PROHIBITED ITEMS. Please also refer to the CLEAR BAG POLICY.

MINI PLANS

Colorado State Athletics is excited to offer fans the ability to purchase three (3) game mini plans. Starting at just $101 and allowing fans the opportunity to pick any three home games as well as the Rocky Mountain Showdown, mini plans provide fans with the flexibility to customize their ticket purchases to fit their schedule and budget. For more information, call (800) 491-RAMS (7267) or visit CSURams.com/tickets.

 - Open your passbook and select your tickets prior to entry to be scanned.

MOUNTAIN WEST CONFERENCE

From its inception in 1999, the Mountain West has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics, while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. Progressive in its approach, the MW continues to cultivate opportunities for student-athletes to compete at the highest level, while fostering academic achievement and sportsmanship. Now in its 20th year, the MW has been assertive in its involvement with the NCAA governance structure and has taken a leadership role in the overall administration of intercollegiate athletics. For more information on the Mountain West, visit themw.com.

NCAA RULES AND COMPLIANCE

Play by the rules! Always.

DEFINITIONS TO KNOW:

- RECRUIT – A student in the 9th – 12th grade.
- BOOSTER – Anyone who makes financial contributions to CSU Athletics, is a member of a team's booster group, has promoted CSU Athletics, or is a former student-athlete.
- EXTRA BENEFIT – Any service or benefit that is not available to the general CSU student body.

RULES TO KNOW:

- BENEFITS – You may not provide current or prospective student-athletes with cash, discounts, or other benefits not generally available to other students.
- RECRUITING – Only coaches are allowed to recruit. Fans and donors may not engage in recruiting activities including interaction with recruits on social media.

Colorado State University is responsible for the actions of fans, donors and other organizations engaged in promoting our athletics interests. A violation of NCAA rules may result in disciplinary and corrective actions determined by the NCAA. Common consequences include ineligibility of student-athletes, vacated wins and other various sanctions imposed on the Athletics Department. If you have any questions about these or any other NCAA rule, please contact the CSU Athletics Compliance Office by phone at (970) 491-6170 or email ath_compliance@mail.colostate.edu. Follow us on Twitter @CSUCompliance.

NEW BELGIUM PORCH

Few experiences rival enjoying Colorado State Football amid the vibrant atmosphere of Fort Collins' own New Belgium Brewing Company. Located on the north end of Canvas Stadium, the New Belgium Porch boasts two premium bars and a field-level drink rail just yards away from the action. Access to the New Belgium Porch on game day is limited to fans with passes. For more information, please call (800) 491-RAMS (7267).

OCR FIELD CLUB

Located on field level and at the 50-yard line, the Orthopaedic & Spine Center of the Rockies (OCR) Field Club offers the exclusive opportunity to experience CSU Football in an unprecedented way. From warm-ups to touchdowns, this space immerses Rams fans in game day action on and off the field. Aside from proximity to the team bench and tunnel, amenities include a premium bar with food and beverages for purchase, numerous flat-screen TVs and a vibrant 4,300 square foot hospitality space. Access to the OCR Field Club on game day is limited to fans with passes. For more information, please call (800) 491-RAMS (7267).

OVERNIGHT PARKING

Overnight parking is available in the Moby Arena parking lot (#195) but must be requested in advance. Please call (800) 491-RAMS (7267) for more information.

PARKING

Parking lots to be used for home football games are indicated on the GAME DAY PARKING MAP. Please see PARKING LOT ENTRANCE AND EXIT INSTRUCTIONS for more information. Certain lots will be reserved on game day for fans who are season ticket holders. Single game parking is also available. See SINGLE GAME PARKING. Residential neighborhood parking is prohibited and many neighborhoods participate in the Residential Parking Permit Program (fcgov.com/parking/residential-parking-permit). More information on game day parking can be found at CSURams.com/footballgameday.

PARKING LOT ENTRANCE AND EXIT INSTRUCTIONS

Specific instructions for entering and exiting each game day parking lot can be found on CSURams.com/footballgameday. Fans, especially those with a season parking pass, are highly encouraged to review thoroughly the instructions for their specific lot to expedite game day transportation and ensure their overall game day enjoyment.

PEDICABS

Pedicabs/bike taxis will be available on game day as an assisted transportation option for fans. All pedicabs operating on the Colorado State University campus must be pre-approved by Colorado State Athletics and the CSU Police Department. Interested parties should email gamedayexperience@colostate.edu. Pedicabs must abide by all traffic laws, including observance of one-way traffic. They should extend courtesy and yield to pedestrians. Pedicabs may not drive beyond traffic barricades or on University grassy areas.

PEDDLING/VENDING

See SOLICITING.

PLAYER GUEST TICKETS

Player guest tickets are available for pick up on game day at the Rams Ticket Office located at Canvas Stadium (northwest corner of stadium, off of Pitkin Street) 90 minutes prior to kickoff. Player guests must enter the stadium immediately after receiving their tickets. A valid photo ID is required to pick up tickets and the name on the ID must match the approved player guest name – no exceptions.

POSTGAME ON THE NEW BELGIUM PORCH

Game day doesn't end at the final whistle! After each game, make your way down to the New Belgium Porch to watch game highlights on the video board as well as the postgame press conference. During this event, admission to the New Belgium Porch is free and a no-host bar will be provided. Subject to kickoff time, game length and weather.

PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION

See BUSES, BUSTANG and MAX.

RADIO NETWORK

All Colorado State Football games will be broadcast on the Colorado State Radio Network, led by 102.9 FM (KARS) in Fort Collins as the flagship station. For a full listing of stations, visit CSURams.com/footballgameday.

RADIOS/TELEVISIONS

Single speaker radios with ear phones and hand-held televisions are allowed into Canvas Stadium as long as their use does not interfere with other guests' enjoyment of the game.

RAM CLUB

The Ram Club serves as the official fundraising organization of Colorado State University Athletics and brings alumni, fans and friends together to form the foundation of our athletics programs through dedicated financial support. Donors to CSU Athletics are Ram Club members and help deliver the resources that provide world-class educational and athletics opportunities to all of our student-athletes. Learn how you can make an impact by visiting csurams.com/ramclub, follow us on Twitter @csuramclub or like us on Facebook facebook.com/csuramclub.

RAM RUCKUS

Ram Ruckus is the official student fan organization of Colorado State Athletics. Open to all CSU students, Ram Ruckus is dedicated to creating a spirited, raucous and intimidating home-field advantage for the Colorado State Football team. Membership is $10 and includes an exclusive T-shirt, wristband, sunglasses, decal, early entry for specific games, access to member-only events and more. For more information on Ram Ruckus, visit CSURams.com/ramruckus.

RAM TOWN

The place to be on game day for families and kids is Ram Town. Located on the northern part of Lagoon Field (just west of the Lory Student Center, intramural fields 12 and 13), Ram Town features inflatables, face painting, balloon artists and other fun-filled activities. Ram Town opens every game day four (4) hours prior to kickoff and closes 30 minutes before kickoff.

RAMVISION

Refers to the massive, 84 foot by 50 foot (4,200 square feet) video board located in Canvas Stadium's south end zone. The game day presentation is further enhanced with a quarter mile of ribbon boards/fascia video boards on all sides of the field and over 800 televisions located throughout the stadium. RamVision is also the name of Colorado State Athletics' video department which is responsible for game day video board productions, internet streams and video on-demand (VOD) content. Visit CSURams.com/watch for game streams and more.

RAM WALK

Welcome and cheer on the Colorado State Football team when they arrive on campus prior to each game. This pep rally like event also includes the Colorado State University Marching Band, Spirit Squad and mascots. Ram Walk takes place on Meridian Avenue, just north of Canvas Stadium, starting at the intersection of Meridian Avenue and Hughes Way, approximately 2.5 hours before kickoff.

RAM ZONE

The official merchandise store of Colorado State Athletics. See MERCHANDISE/RAM ZONE.

RECYCLING AND COMPOSTING

Colorado State University and CSU Athletics are working hard to keep campus, Fort Collins and Colorado clean and green! Do your part on game day as recycling and composting containers are provided throughout campus as well as on the Canvas Stadium concourse.

RE-ENTRY

Once a guest leaves Canvas Stadium, re-entry is not permitted. Guests should plan accordingly and bring everything they will need during the course of the game to the stadium upon initial entry.

RESTROOMS

All restrooms at Canvas Stadium have diaper changing stations available and are accessible to guests with disabilities. The following is a list of sections where restrooms are located:

- MEN'S: behind sections 104, 107, 109, 112, 114, 116, 126, 128, 132, and 138.
- WOMEN'S: behind sections 104, 106, 108, 110, 113, 118, 128, 130, 132, 135 and 137.
- ALL GENDER/FAMILY: behind sections 105, 113, 116, 128, 130 and 137.

RETIRED/HONORED NUMBERS

Colorado State Football has three retired/honored numbers – 3, 21 and 48. #3, Greg Myers, was the only four-time Western Athletic Conference selection in league history. He was a two-time first team All-American and a two-time academic All-American. In 1995, Greg was the winner of the annual Jim Thorpe Award and was named Honda Scholar Athlete of the Year. Eddie Hanna's #21 was retired in 1949 when he passed away due to cardiac arrest while riding the train back with the team following a game in Colorado Springs. #48, Thurman "Fum" McGraw, was CSU's first consensus football All-American, first in 1948 and again the following season. McGraw spent more than four decades at CSU as a coach, campus administrator and athletic director. He led CSU to its first bowl game, the 1949 Raisin Bowl.

RV PARKING

RV parking is available in the Moby Arena (#195) and Lory Student Center (#310) parking lots. A season pass is required as well as a minimum contribution to the Ram Club. Overnight parking is permitted in the Moby Arena parking lot but must be requested in advance. For more information on RV parking, call (800) 491-RAMS (7267).

SCALPING TICKETS

If tickets are resold by or purchased from anyone not expressly authorized by Colorado State University or its designated agent, seller and buyer assume all risks associated with the transaction. Resale of tickets on Colorado State University premises is not permitted. Persons who sell or offer a ticket for resale at any price on Colorado State University premises may be removed from the premises and prosecuted. Tickets may not be resold or offered for resale in a manner, at a price or otherwise in violation of any Federal, State or local laws/ordinances/regulations; any such resale will invalidate the license granted by the ticket. Fans interested in reselling their tickets should do so through StubHub (stubhub.com) which is the University's licensed resale agent.

SCOREBOARD MESSAGES

Colorado State University is happy to celebrate fans' special occasions on game day such as birthdays and anniversaries. Fans can purchase a scoreboard message that will appear on the south video board during halftime for $150. Scoreboard messages must be requested a least one (1) week in advance of the game at which they are supposed to occur. Messages are allowed a maximum of 12 words, must be in good taste and CSU retains the right to modify any message. For more information, call (800) 491-RAMS (7267).

SEARCHES

All persons consent to allowing Colorado State University and/or their designees to inspect his/her person (and that of any minor accompanying such person) and any bags, clothing or other articles for security purposes.

SEASON TICKETS

Season tickets start at $250 and include all six home games as well as the Rocky Mountain Showdown versus Colorado in Denver at Broncos Stadium at Mile High. For more information, visit CSURams.com/tickets or call (800) 491-RAMS (7267).

SERVICE ANIMALS

Animals are not permitted inside Canvas Stadium with the exception of trained service dogs for guests with disabilities or service dogs in training.

SHUTTLES

Colorado State University and CSU Athletics have partnered with the City of Fort Collins and Transport to provide a shuttle for fans who have parked near the CSU Health and Medical Center; individuals who have arrived on campus via limousine, Lyft, taxi or Uber; and guests who have utilized ACCESSIBLE PARKING in lot 575.

SIGNS

See BANNERS, FLAGS and SIGNS.

Colorado State Athletics and the Rams Ticket Office is proud to have StubHub as the official ticket marketplace of the Rams. StubHub provides a fully integrated ticketing platform, which allows season and single game ticket holders the opportunity to resell tickets with confidence and ease on the world's largest ticket marketplace, while also providing buyers a safe and secure shopping experience, with instant tickets upon purchase via mobile delivery or print-at-home. For more information on StubHub, call (800) 491-RAMS (7267).

STUDENT REPAK

A student repark program is in place to support football game days on the Colorado State University campus. For specific information on the program, please visit CSURams.com/footballgameday.

STUDENT TAILGATING

The student vehicle tailgate is located in the TILT parking lot (#315). For a vehicle to enter the lot on game day, it must have the proper pass. Passes can be obtained through the Associated Students of Colorado State University (ASCSU) office. Pass holders can begin entering the lot four (4) hours prior to kickoff.

STUDENT TICKETS

Students are able to attend home Colorado State Football games for free by claiming their ticket online in advance, which reserves their seat and activates their Ram Card for entry, or show up on game day and swipe their Ram Card to receive admittance (if seats still remain). Ticket claim schedules will be published and communicated to students prior to the start of the season. To view the claim schedule, claim your student ticket and for more information on the overall process, visit CSURams.com/studenttickets.

TAILGATING

Colorado State University and CSU Athletics are excited to offer fans the opportunity to tailgate on our beautiful campus. Please follow the policies below to ensure a safe and enjoyable tailgate experience:

- PROHIBITED ITEMS:
 - Bonfires, campfires and open flames
 - Charcoal grills
 - Glass bottles and drink containers
 - Kegs
 - Hard alcohol/liquor
 - Drinking games and paraphernalia
 - Sponsored signage and giveaways. See SOLICITING.
- Prohibited Areas – Tents, awnings, canopies and similar items and tailgating activities of any kind are prohibited at several campus locations including sidewalks, intramural fields (except for fields 12 and 13 – Lagoon Field), student residential areas and landscape spaces that are not designated as “tailgating space.”
- Food and beverages shall be for personal consumption only. Sales are prohibited.
- Hooking into, connecting to, or similar use of University utilities and/or television or communication cable services is prohibited.
- Only one vehicle per parking space with permit.
- RVs or oversized/tow-behind trailers will need to purchase additional permits to cover the number of parking spaces used.
- Saving parking spots is prohibited; to park together, guests must arrive together.
- Tailgating may only take place within the footprint of the parking space with the following considerations:
 - No objects (tents, tables, chairs, grills, etc.) may be placed or encroach into emergency access lanes, parking lot driving lanes or other parking spaces.
 - Tents, awnings and canopies larger than 10 feet by 10 feet (ten-by-ten) are prohibited in campus parking lots. Individuals are responsible for properly securing their tents, awnings and canopies by using anchor weights. Stakes may not be used to anchor any tent, awning or canopy. Tents, awnings and canopies may not be chained to landscaping or signs.
 - Individuals may purchase additional parking permits, if available, to increase space for tailgating.
- Individual(s) purchasing the tailgating/parking spot are responsible for the conduct of their guests.
- Overnight parking is restricted to RV parking in the Moby Arena Lot (#195) with a purchased overnight pass. This will only be allowed for specific games with restrictions.
- Individuals may not erect or move barricades, barrels, fencing or any other traffic control devices.
- All parking signs and instructions must be obeyed and strictly followed.
- Individuals are responsible for properly securing overhead objects (flags, kites, balloons, etc.).

- It is the responsibility of each tailgate party to secure tailgating items prior to entering the stadium.
- Use of portable generators is limited to quiet units.
- All motor homes require exhaust extensions that reach the top of the motor home. For the safety of everyone, motor homes without an extension should not operate a generator.
- Animals must be kept on a leash of six (6) feet or shorter in all tailgating areas. Owners must remain in control of their animals at all times. All buildings on campus, including Canvas Stadium, do not allow animals with the exception of service dogs for individuals with disabilities and service dogs in training.
- Music must be confined to individual tailgating areas and speakers must be directed into the individual tailgate area.
- Use of ATVs, golf carts, gators, scooters, mopeds and other motorized recreational vehicles are prohibited with the exception of emergency and authorized university personnel.
- All trash from tailgates must be disposed of properly in designated containers.
- Tailgating begins four (4) hours prior to kickoff and concludes 30 minutes before kickoff.

Please follow the direction of ushers and stadium staff to the nearest shelter area. Shelter areas include stairwells, restrooms and other enclosed areas within Canvas Stadium.

WEBSITE

CSURams.com is your one-stop shop for everything Colorado State Athletics. Visit the website to receive the latest news and updates on your Rams teams, purchase game tickets, join the Ram Club, buy merchandise, watch games and press conferences stream lived, view exclusive video content and more!

WEST TOWER

Situated on the west side of Canvas Stadium, the luxury tower and press box contains the team locker rooms and other team operations, working media areas, indoor club, outdoor club, suites, loge boxes, the Orthopaedic & Spine Center of the Rockies (OCR) Field Club, Markley Family Hall of Champions, Spectra Food Services, and stadium management and security.

WIFI

Colorado State Athletics is excited to offer fans free wireless internet service while in Canvas Stadium. To access, simply look up the available networks and select the stadium wireless option.

WILL CALL

Will Call is defined as tickets left by Colorado State Athletics, tickets purchased via phone or internet that were not mailed, or tickets left by a third party. Will Call is available during regular business hours (Monday-Friday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.) at the Rams Ticket Office at the McGraw Athletic Center (west side of Moby Arena). Guests must present a photo ID to pick up tickets. Tickets must be left under the name of the person who will pick them up. If there is a need to change the Will Call name, the original ticket purchaser must contact the ticket office prior to game day at (800) 491-RAMS (7267). Will Call on game day is located at the Rams Ticket Office at Canvas Stadium (northwest corner of stadium, off of Pitkin Street) which opens four (4) hours prior to kickoff.
