Amish Country Driving Tour (A-G)

Regardless of what path you take, the quiet roads of Grabill will give you a glimpse into the simple life of this traditional Amish community. Enjoy a country drive amidst peaceful and picturesque views. And who knows, you may even get the chance to see a classic horse and buggy trotting down the road alongside you.

From Fort Wayne, drive in on State Rd 37 to come across (A) Schmucker's Amish Produce Market, a beautiful family owned farm that sells fresh Amish produce.

Next, take a left onto Cuba Rd, a left onto Antwerp Rd, and a right onto Roth Rd to drive by an (B) Amish Graveyard and look at the traditional lovely headstones that give you a small glimpse into this community's history.

To get to our next stop, continue down Roth Rd and take a right onto Grabill Rd and then take a left onto Spencerville Rd until you hit Hurshtown Rd. This scenic drive to (C) A&M Amish Grocery will be sure to impress you as you drive among beautiful fields and wildlife.

Next, head all the way down Hurshtown Rd until you take a right onto Roth Rd, and then a right onto St Rd 1, and finally another right onto CR 68 where you will find the famous (D) Spencerville Covered Bridge.

Once you're done admiring this local favorite, head back onto CR 68 and take a left on St. Rd 1. Next, take a left onto Van Zile Rd to stumble upon the serene (E) Hurshtown Reservoir.

Finally, continue down Page Rd, take a right onto Grabill Rd, and then a left onto Schwartz Rd to find our final stop, Riverside Park and Gardens (G)
