

A Monday in Fort Wayne: Winter Edition

Visiting Fort Wayne on a Monday? The Fort Wayne Visitors Center is a great resource to find out what events are going on around town, and what attractions and activities are open throughout Fort Wayne!

The next time you are in Fort Wayne on a Monday, consider these options below.

Go Ice Skating at Headwaters Park Pavilion

From December to February the ice skating rink is open for visitors to enjoy a winter skate.

Admission is $5 and you can bring your own skates or rent a pair for $2. The rink is open Mon.-Thurs. from 1 - 8 pm, Fri. 12 - 10 pm, Sat. 11 am - 10 pm and Sun. 12 - 8 pm. With extended hours during the holidays.

Or you can skate at the Lakeside Park basketball court where a portable ice rink will be installed when the temperatures get low enough to freeze water. Remember to bring your own skates!

No matter the weather, you can also skate indoors at the SportONE Parkview Icehouse and bounce around in their bounce house area! Open skating times occur Mon. - Fri., but make sure you check for specific times on their calendar of events. Admission is $9.50.

Research and Read

Head over to the downtown Allen County Public Library where there are many treasures to find! Consider researching your family history in the Genealogy Center!

The Firefighter's Museum is another great place to discover! The museum is open Mon.-Sat. 10 am - 4 pm, but make sure you call ahead to ensure they're open. Admission is $4 for adults.

Consider The History Center where you can see more than 26,000 artifacts that represent the history of Fort Wayne and Allen County.

The History Center is open Mon. - Fri.

10 am - 5 pm, Sat. 12 - 5 pm, and the first Sunday of the month 12 - 5 pm unless otherwise noted.

Admission is $6 for adults, $4 for seniors and youth, and children 2 and under are free.

Take a walking tour of the courthouse any day of the week and browse the Beaux Art design and more than 15,000 sq.ft. of scagliola. Get a self-guided tour brochure by visiting allencountycourthouse.org

Go Shopping

The Glenbrook Square and Jefferson Pointe Shopping Center are two great options to find many stores. Also, check out The City Exchange shops located just around the corner from the Visitors Center: open Mon. - Sat. from 12 - 7 pm.

Burn Some Energy

Head north to Ultra Zone for some laser tag fun or go to Crazy Pinz where you can go bowling or even play mini golf.

Eat Out

Consider dining out at many of the local restaurants in the City of Restaurants!
