STOCKYARDS

El Rancho Grande Restaurante

Homemade corn tortilla chips and mild, flavorful salsa are addictive, but save room for tamales, enchiladas, fajitas and other traditional Tex-Mex dishes at this family-friendly restaurant.

1400 N. Main Street 817.624.9206

Esperanza's Restaurant and Bakery

This bakery and cafe serves breakfast and home-style Mexican dishes. The chilaquiles with chorizo are just one of the many breakfast joys. The enchiladas in green salsa, fresh gordita stuffed with carnitas and the caldo res (beef stew) are exceptional. The aguas frescas are made daily.

2122 N. Main Street 817.626.5770

Habanero's Grill and Cantina

Located in the heart of the Stockyards, Habanero's offers a large menu of Mexican and Tex-Mex favorites along with daily happy hour and drink specials.

140 E. Exchange Street 817.566.0917

Horseshoe Hill Cafe

Grady Spears, cowboy cook and author, returns to Fort Worth with his award-winning cuisine, cooking The Cowboy Way.

204 W. Exchange Street 817.882.6405

Hunter Brothers' H3 Ranch

Delicious trout, lip-smackin' ribs and succulent steaks will satisfy the heartiest of appetites. No meal is complete without dessert: homemade pies and cobblers are baked fresh daily, and H3's Jack Daniel's ice cream with a brownie and chocolate sauce is legendary.

109 E Exchange Avenue 817.624.1246

Joe T. Garcia's Mexican Restaurant

This Stockyards institution serves up potent margaritas made with silver tequila and fresh lime juice, along with old-school Mexican combo plates and fajitas in a gorgeous hacienda-style garden courtyard.

2201 N. Commerce 817.626.4356

Lonesome Dove Western Bistro

Celebrity chef-owner Tim Love has garnered national acclaim for his signature dishes of wild game and seasonal fish combined with fresh local ingredients. Lonesome Dove's modern take on cowboy cuisine ranges from hand-cut steaks to exotic plates of kangaroo carpaccio.

2406 N. Main Street 817.740.8810

Los Vaqueros

Owned by the Cisneros family, Los Vaqueros Restaurants have been providing fresh authentic Mexican cuisine made from family recipes for 30 years. Each location provides Sunday brunch and lunch and dinner service, along with catering, banquets, weddings, special events and outdoor dining in authentic surroundings inspired by old Mexico.

2629 N. Main Street 817.624.1511

Love Shack

Iron Chef winner and owner Tim Love has created a gourmet burger joint with outdoor seating, live music and a menu that will have you coming back for more! Featuring made-to-order burgers, hot dogs, and a full beer and wine menu.

110 E. Exchange Avenue 817.740.8812

Mercado Juarez

Every meal at Mercado Juarez starts with fresh homemade tortillas and warm salsa picante, and continues with mesquite-roasted Mexican and Tex-Mex dishes.

1651 E. Northside Drive 817.838.8285

Risky's Steakhouse

Everything about Risky's Steakhouse says "Cowtown." The steaks here are as big as Texas, and the pecan pie is the star of Texas desserts. Sink your teeth into chicken, grilled shrimp or even the delectable calf fries. You can also find some of the famous Risky's barbecue here.

120 E. Exchange Avenue 817.624.4800

Star Café

With its old-tyme-saloon ambience, Star Cafe is a long-standing tradition in the Stockyards National Historic District. The menu centers on beef, including tender, juicy burgers and steaks. Other menu offerings include grilled chicken and a variety of sandwiches and salads.

111 W. Exchange Avenue 817.624.8701

WEST 7th

Bar Louie

A casual neighborhood place that features warm, upbeat surroundings with modern food and handcrafted signature cocktails. It offers an extensive selection of appetizers, sandwiches and entrees, plus a wide assortment of martinis, microbrews and wines.

2973 W. 7th Street 817.566.9933

Boomerjack's Grill and Bar

Whether it's the big flavor of signature burgers, some kickin' wings or just a frosty beverage, you are sure to find something that will make your taste buds happy.

2600 W. 7th Street 817.810.2666

Chuy's Restaurant

The original Chuy's restaurant was started in an abandoned barbecue joint in Austin. Now it enjoys a cult-like following and maintains a reputation of being the most fun and friendly spot to eat Mexican food at a great price. While each location has a personality of its own, you can still always expect signature pieces of eclectic décor.

2401 W. 7th Street 817.332.2489

Fred's Texas Cafe

Nationally acclaimed burgers, fabulous chicken-fried steak, and the coldest beer in town— that's Fred's Texas Cafe, a beloved local dive that's serious about food and casual about everything else. Indoors, booths and bar stools are held together with duct tape; outdoors, the expansive patio, features full bar and live music.

3008 Bledsoe Street 817.984.1166

M&O Station Grill

The stars at this tucked-away eatery are the huge grilled burgers with lavish toppings, like the chorizo, fried egg, jack cheese and grilled jalapenos on the popular Toluca burger. Daily plate-lunch specials may include chicken fried steak, fried tilapia, stuffed pork chops, or whatever chef is in the mood for. It's always delicious.

200 Carroll Street 817.882.8020

MAX's Wine Dive

MAX's is a "dive" that's fun and funky. MAX's caters to diners who are hungry for all the rich flavors of fine dining without the stodginess that often accompanies a "fine-dining" experience. Serving up dinner seven days a week, tasty brunch Friday through Sunday, and happy hour deals Monday through Friday.

2421 W. 7th Street, Suite 109 817.870.1100
