

Cowboy for a Day

- Soak up history at the National Cowgirl Museum and Hall of Fame, the world's only museum dedicated to honoring women of the American West. From Annie Oakley to Jessie the Cowgirl from Toy Story, visitors will discover rare photographs, fascinating artifacts and interactive displays.
- "Giddy up" to the Stockyards National Historic District and explore the Texas Cowboy Hall of Fame and Stockyards Station, where legends are memorialized and unique Texas gifts abound.
- Well known for our mouthwatering barbecue and Texas-sized meals, grab some lunch at Risky's Barbeque, Love Shack Burgers or Cooper's Old Time Pit Bar-B-Que.
- Don't miss the Fort Worth Herd in the world's only twice-daily cattle drive – Texas Longhorns driven by genuine Texas cowhands – every day at 11:30 a.m. and 4 p.m.
- If the drovers inspire you to saddle up, head over to the Fort Worth Stockyard Stables, where guided horseback rides along the beautiful Trinity River are offered daily.
- After working up your appetite, experience the best in cowboy cuisine at Lonesome Dove Western Bistro, Cattlemen's Steak House or Hunter Brothers' H3 Ranch.
- Watch the action unfold during the Stockyards Championship Rodeo, every Friday and Saturday night at 8 p.m. in historic Cowtown Coliseum. Afterwards, scoot on over to Billy Bob's Texas - the world's largest honky-tonk for the best in live Country Western music, bull riding and line dancing all weekend long.

Put your skills to work at any of the following "working ranches" just one hour outside of Fort Worth:

- Beaumont Ranch in Grandview
- Benbrook Stables
- Wildcatter Ranch in Graham
- Southfork Ranch in Dallas
