HAWAII CONVENTION CENTER PRESENTS FREE FAMILY FUN ON LABOR DAY EVE

– Next monthly "Sunset Mele on the Rooftop" scheduled for September 6 –

HONOLULU – As summer in the Hawaiian Islands winds down, the Hawai'i Convention Center (HCC)'s "Sunset Mele on the Rooftop" is in full swing with the next event of the free, monthly entertainment series scheduled for Sun., Sept. 6.

Resident and visiting O'ahu families are invited to enjoy a full evening of entertainment, sponsored by Lyon Associates, featuring live performances by Hawai'i musicians Kuikahi and John Feary, a screening of the feature film, "The Lego Movie," and keiki activities in the HCC's air-conditioned ballroom beginning at 5 p.m.

"We're pleased to be able to continue providing a fun, safe and affordable event for the local and visitor communities," said Teri Orton, HCC general manager. "We know many families will spend the Labor Day weekend outdoors exploring our beautiful island, and 'Sunset Mele on the Rooftop' is a great way to unwind and cool down after a long day out in the sun."

HCC's in-house culinary team will be serving up popcorn, hot dogs, hamburgers, nachos and bentos. Additional vendors at the Sunset Mele Market Place will offer snacks, beverages, and beautiful arts and crafts for sale.

The schedule of activities for the evening will be as follows:

- 5 p.m. "Sunset Mele on the Rooftop" begins, featuring Sunset Mele Market Place gourmet popcorn, hotdogs and more
- 5:15 p.m. Entertainment by Kuikahi
- 6:15 p.m. Entertainment by John Feary
- 7:05 p.m. Screening of the feature film, "The Lego Movie"
- 9 p.m. "Sunset Mele on the Rooftop" pau (finished)

Admission to "Sunset Mele on the Rooftop" is free. Parking at the Hawai'i Convention Center for the event is $5 per vehicle. Outside food, beverages and coolers will not be allowed.

The HCC-hosted "Sunset Mele on the Rooftop" entertainment series will continue monthly through the end of the year with the next event scheduled for Sat., Oct. 31. Each month will feature a new entertainment lineup.
