HONOLULU – Enjoy an evening of entertainment for the whole family at the Hawai'i Convention Center's (HCC) free, monthly entertainment series on Sat., March 26.

Residents and visitors alike are invited to enjoy an evening of entertainment. This month's edition features live performances by John Feary & Friends, along with an appearance by the Easter Bunny and tasty treats for the keiki. There will also be a special screening of "HOP" beginning at 6:30 p.m. in HCC's Kalākaua Ballroom.

"Sunset Mele provides us with an unique opportunity to provide the community with an event to gather and unwind. It's even more of a treat when we get to celebrate the holidays together, this month's event will feature keiki photos with the Easter bunny, delicious Easter themed treats, and keiki hula hālau performances," said Teri Orton, HCC general manager.

Local artisans will feature beautifully handmade arts and crafts available for purchase at the Sunset Mele Marketplace.

The schedule of activities for the evening is as follows:

- 4:30 p.m.      Event begins, featuring keiki photos with the Easter Bunny along with the Sunset Mele Market Place showcasing food booths, artisans and more
- 5:00 p.m.      Live entertainment by John Feary & Friends
- 6:00 p.m.      Keiki hula hālau performances
- 6:30 p.m.      Easter Movie: "HOP"
- 8:30 p.m.      Event pau (finished)

Admission to "Sunset Mele on the Rooftop" is free. Parking at the Hawai'i Convention Center for the event is $5 per vehicle. Outside food, beverages and coolers will not be allowed, however, guests are welcome to bring low beach chairs, mats and blankets.

The HCC-hosted "Sunset Mele on the Rooftop" monthly entertainment series will continue in April. The next event is set for Fri., April 29, 2016.
