BEER WINE & SHINE Trail

BEERWINE&SHINETRAIL.COM

JOHNSTON COUNTY
NORTH CAROLINA

Begin your journey....

The Johnston County Beer, Wine, and Shine Trail may be the only one of its kind in North Carolina. Many locations have wine, and now just as many have breweries, but few can say they have all three beverages. Only our destination has packaged them all into a trail. To add a culinary experience as well, this guide has included area restaurants serving local beverages, and of course, we have included spots for barbecue -- done Eastern-style with vinegar and red peppers!

Members along the trail are happy to welcome visitors from near and far -- with offers only found in the guide and online at beerwineshinetrail.com. So gather a few friends, and make an outing to Johnston County. With so many stops along the trail, you may want to come back again and again!

To make the trail visitor friendly -- there are no stamps, no check-ins, just great offers. If you wish to keep in touch with events and happenings with our partners, visit us online at beerwineshinetrail.com to join our email list, and receive a gift from the Johnston County Visitors Bureau. Our treat!
