Mayor Colin Basran

A Message from Colin Basran, Mayor of Kelowna

Welcome to Kelowna — a beautiful place where we enjoy a great quality of life.

Kelowna is the biggest city in the Interior of British Columbia and one of the fastest growing places in Canada.

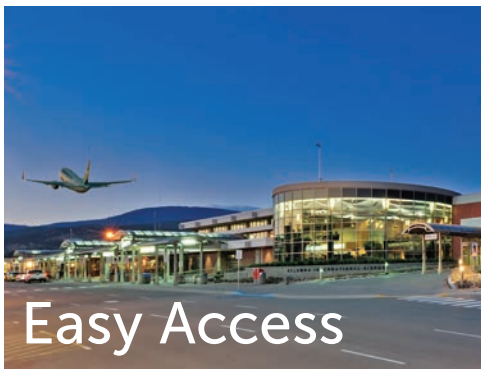

People from across Canada and around the world have always been attracted to Kelowna for its natural environment — hot summers and moderate winters, beautiful lakes, beaches, mountains and outdoor recreation opportunities to enjoy in every season.

Along with an agricultural bounty that culinary experts turn into tantalizing foods, award-winning wines, craft beers and spirits, Kelowna is also the urban and economic centre of the Okanagan. We're an energetic city with a lot on the go, including a fast-growing technology and innovation sector and one of the busiest international airports in Canada.

A diversified economy that features large institutional employers and a bustling community of entrepreneurs is balanced by our investments in arts and culture, along with athletic and entertainment facilities and events for all ages and interests.

Kelowna is a city that celebrates diversity, learning from people who come here from all walks of life, regardless of who they worship, the colour of their skin, or who they might choose to marry. We believe everyone can make a contribution to our community and we embrace newcomers who share this vision of inclusiveness.

Thank you for visiting Kelowna. On behalf of our nearly 130,000 citizens, I hope you have a pleasant stay and I hope you get to experience all that our city has to offer — and, if you don't get to see everything, come back again (and again — or maybe just move here).

Easy Access

Kelowna is located approximately 400 km (240 mi) from Vancouver, 600 km (360 mi) from Calgary, 150 km (90 mi) north of the USA border, 500 km (310 mi) from Seattle, and is easily accessible via Highways 1, 3, 5, 33, and 97. Kelowna International Airport (YLW) is one of the busiest airports in Canada, with over 1.7 million passengers annually. There are more than 60 daily flights to and from non-stop destinations like Toronto, Vancouver, Victoria, Calgary, Edmonton, and Seattle, making Kelowna easier than ever to visit! The Shell Aero Centre welcomes private aircraft and provides pilot services such as sleeping quarters, cooking facilities, and 24-hour customs.

KELOWNA

WELCOME TO KELOWNA. IN THE EARLY 1900S, FIRST NATIONS PEOPLE NAMED KELOWNA AFTER THE "GRIZZLY BEAR." DOWNTOWN, STUART PARK'S PUBLIC ART RECOGNIZES THE BEAR WITH A UNIQUE, CONTEMPORARY SCULPTURE.

As the largest community in the Okanagan Valley, the lakeside city of Kelowna is a popular recreational paradise with miles of beautiful parkland and sandy beaches that provide wonderful opportunities for boating, swimming, waterskiing, paddling, windsurfing, and fishing. Even Kelowna's main street ends at a beach!

Savour Kelowna's thriving foodie scene, relax on an outdoor patio, stroll along the lakeside boardwalk, explore local markets for treasures being sold by talented artisans, or enjoy a free concert in the park.

Golfers can select from 19 local golf courses totalling a whopping 110,786 yards. If you're a wine enthusiast, touring Kelowna is a must. There are more than 40 wineries as well as craft breweries, cideries, and distilleries that all offer local tastings for a variety of palates.

What is there to see and do around Kelowna? Take the kids on a hike or a zipline across canyons. Cycle the historic Myra Canyon trestles. Have a family day at the lake. Rent a boat, try a stand up paddleboard, or relax at one of over 30 local beaches. Spend a day picking through farms and fruit stands, then have a glass (or two) of Okanagan wine — some wineries offer grape juice tasting for the kids!

WEST KELOWNA

WEST KELOWNA — WHERE RURAL AND SOPHISTICATION MEET IN THE OKANAGAN VALLEY. DISCOVER ROLLING HILLS OF ORCHARDS, VINEYARDS, AND NATURAL LANDSCAPES INTERTWINED WITH FRIENDLY FACES AND WARM WELCOMES.

Sitting on the edge of nature, West Kelowna, referred to as 'the Westside' by locals, is situated on the west side of Okanagan Lake, opposite the city of Kelowna. Here visitors can revel in charming farmgate operations, forested parks, miles of hiking trails, orchards and vineyards, and spectacular vistas. West Kelowna's Gellatly Bay area is perfect for strolling the waterfront walkway, building sandcastles, or ziplining into the clear, sparkling waters off the historic ferry dock.

Here you will also find wineries, architecture, artisans, First Nation heritage and sculptures, culinary delights, and familiar stores for convenient shopping. We invite you to take the road less travelled and discover West Kelowna's abundance of friendly charm, local treasures, and best-kept secrets.

What is there to see and do around West Kelowna? Tour the thirteen wineries of the Westside Wine Trail with a new cider house and brewery opening this year. Visit the Westside Farm Loop for fresh produce. Take a self-guided tour through the century-old Gellatly Nut Farm. Enjoy 'Music in the Park' each Friday night in the summer.
