

Tourism Grants are made possible by an agreement between the Laurel Highlands Visitors Bureau and the county of Fayette. The money available for these grants is made possible by the collection of a room tax within the lodging community. This unique program allows for the enhancement and growth of a vibrant tourism product within the Laurel Highlands region. Grants are never a promise, but an opportunity.

GENERAL GUIDELINES:

- ✓ All tourism grants are required to have a 25% match. The match can be 25% cash or 12.5% cash and 12.5% in-kind match.
- ✓ Applicants with open grants prior to 2017 are not eligible to apply for a 2018 Grant.
- ✓ Events that will not be continued annually do not qualify for grant funds.
