THE NAPA VALLEY

There is something to satisfy each and every guest.

WINE

Whether you're a new wine fan or a seasoned connoisseur, Napa Valley tasting rooms warmly welcome guests for enjoyable and educational tastings that fascinate and engage at all knowledge levels. With more than 500 wineries, 95 percent of which are family-owned and operated, each winery has its own unique style, setting and history.

DINING

The Napa Valley's thriving culinary scene boasts more than 125 restaurants, including some of the world's best. In fact, there are more Michelin stars per capita here than any other wine region in the world. With award-winning chefs, plentiful gardens and farm-to-table practices, there is something to satisfy each and every guest.

HOSPITALITY

From lavish five-star luxury resorts to intimate B&Bs, the Napa Valley offers a wide variety of world-class lodging with over with 5,000 rooms in more than 150 properties.

WELLNESS

Natural geothermal springs and volcanic mud baths are the foundation of the Valley's established, regional spa culture.

Hiking, biking, golf and hot air ballooning are just a few of the abundant outdoor experiences that draw visitors out into the valley's natural beauty.

ARTS

In the Napa Valley, cultivation goes beyond the vine. The artistic side of the valley may be its best-kept secret. Over 10,000 works of art can be seen across the valley at 70 different wineries and more than 40 arts and culture institutions.
