CALISTOGA

Laid-back Calistoga is famous for its authentic spas, geothermal springs and volcanic ash mud baths. Whether you're unwinding with a massage, taking a stunning hike or riding a gondola, this serene atmosphere makes for the perfect reward for top performers.

ST. HELENA

In the charming town of St. Helena, the main streets are lined with quaint shops and restaurants. Visit one of the many art galleries or make your own artistic interpretation by blending a personal bottle of wine as a team building event.

YOUNTVILLE

Yountville features luxury boutique hotels in a walkable landscape. Michelin star chefs reside here, but even the casual dining will tantalize your taste buds. And don't forget to look up in the early morning hours for the hot air balloon filled skies.

DOWNTOWN NAPA

Located on the Napa River, the city of Napa is perfect for a larger group. You'll find art walks, delicious food, tasting rooms, lively events and two performing arts centers, all within close proximity to any adventure you seek. There are a variety of lifestyle lodging options to re-energize for the next day.

AMERICAN CANYON

At the southern tip of the Napa Valley you'll find the town of American Canyon offering affordability and access to the surrounding area. Explore the wetlands and surrounding Carneros wine-growing region.

CABERNET SEASON

From November to April, a slower, more intimate atmosphere emerges, allowing for personal experiences with winemakers and artists, lingering meals and luxurious spa days. Temperatures are perfectly mild, creating a haven for cozy getaways, hearty fare and spectacular wine. It's the best time of year to stumble upon unexpected, memorable moments.
