SISTER CITIES

Newport, Rhode Island has “twinned” with six similar sister cities from around the globe.

- Imperia, Italy
- Kinsale, Ireland
- Ponta Delgada, Azores, Portugal
- Saint John, New Brunswick, Canada
- Shimoda, Japan
- Skiathos, Greece

KINSALE ▶

This picturesque historic port and fishing town in County Cork is today known as the Gourmet Capital of Ireland. Newport enjoys a very active sister city relationship with Kinsale, one of the most picturesque, popular and historic towns on the south west coast of the Emerald Isle.

IMPERIA

This seaside resort town is on the breathtaking Italian Riviera on the Ligurian Coast. Like Newport, its harbor is peppered with traditional fishing boats, sailboats meant for speed and super yachts.

SAINT JOHN ▶

Here you'll find history comes alive with breathtaking architecture while waterfront restaurants, lively music festivals and unique shops and galleries give the city a decidedly modern feel.

PONTA DELGADA

What was founded as a small fishing village is now the largest and most populous city in the Azores. With a thriving yachting center, historical quarter, cultural attractions, active Naval presence and the Sao Bras Fortress, our similarities are palpable.

SHIMODA ▶

This sister city relationship is one of the oldest in New England, but our bond dates back to 1854, when Newport's own Commodore Matthew C. Perry led an expedition to Japan and was a signer of the Treaty of Kanagawa which opened both relations and trade routes.

SKIATHOS

This cosmopolitan island in the Aegean Sea is best known for beautiful beaches and a bustling nightlife. You'll find plenty of postcard perfect tavernas by the sea as well as miles of well-laid walking trails.

GETTING HERE

Boston, MA: 70 miles

Newport, RI

Hartford, CT: 100 miles

New York City, NY: 175 miles

Located in the heart of New England, we are easily accessible by car, train, bus or boat. Within driving distance of all major cities in the Northeast, our charming destination is just 30 minutes from T.F. Green Airport (PVD) and 90 minutes from Logan International Airport in Boston, Massachusetts (BOS). Two train stations, one in West Kingston (17 miles from Newport) and the other in Providence (34 miles from Newport), are regular Amtrak stops and easily accessible.
