

THURSTON BOUNTIFUL BYWAY MEMBERSHIP PROGRAM 2018

WELCOME!

The Olympia-Lacey-Tumwater Visitor & Convention Bureau (VCB) works with one-of-a-kind professionals, passionate about serving up the best of what they have to offer. These are the people who work day in and day out to create memorable and meaningful experiences for our visitors. From the coffee shop baristas and hotel managers to local artists, farmers and brewers, Thurston County is rich with people and stories that bring our destination to life and make this a remarkable place to visit.

Our role as zealous destination marketers is to share these stories with the world—to showcase the businesses and organizations that make this place what it is.

Because of this, we offer a robust marketing package designed to promote local businesses in the form of VCB Membership. VCB Membership gives businesses access to over a hundred thousand visitors planning their trips to the region. It connects them to the lucrative visitor market known for spending more per party per day than residents. It gives them the chance to share their story beyond the boundaries of Thurston County with potential to expand their brand in big ways. It gives them opportunity.

We are partnering with the Thurston County Agritourism Committee and agritourism related businesses to share the story of Thurston Bountiful Byway with visitors hungry for the authentic agricultural experiences our region has to offer.

BOUNTIFUL BYWAY MEMBER CRITERIA

The Agritourism Advisory Committee will recommend to the OLTVCB, by majority vote, qualifying businesses for membership in the Byway Marketing Plan based on the criteria below:

- i. Does the use or activity of the business promote locally grown and produced agricultural products, goods, and services; and
- ii. Does the use or activity of the business emphasize local rural and agricultural attributes such as local specialty crops, farming and rural culture, native and natural resources, local history, local food networks, and relationships, and other elements which highlight the importance of local agriculture; or
- iii. Does the use or activity of the business entice visitors who could see and experience the value of local agricultural lands to the culture and economy of rural Thurston County and who may purchase locally grown and produced agricultural products, goods and services. These uses are not necessarily directly related to agriculture but could help support the rural and agricultural economy by drawing visitors.
