Don't just wait for your flight home, extend your vacation.

One of the best things about cruising from Port Everglades is the convenience. Fort Lauderdale-Hollywood International Airport is less than two miles away. This means that travelers often find themselves with time to spare after debarkation. Some choose to head directly to the airport and wait—in some cases for hours. May we suggest an alternative?

Discover sunny, chic Greater Fort Lauderdale.

Greater Fort Lauderdale has evolved into a world-class travel destination. Luxury hotels and resorts have arrived. Dining options have expanded to suit any palate. Incredible arts, entertainment and shopping opportunities are within minutes of the airport.
