

» DOWNTOWN RALEIGH

Downtown Raleigh is the bikeable, walkable heart of North Carolina's second-largest city. Its Fayetteville Street district, where the corridor ends just 5.9 miles from NCMA, epitomizes Raleigh as a sophisticated Southern city, with impressive skyscrapers mingling with restored historic buildings.

For ideas on things to see and do year-round, go to visitRaleigh.com or stop by the official Visitor Information Center, 500 Fayetteville St.

- » From southern Fayetteville St., easily walk to 60+ eateries and 50 shops, or try an urban rickshaw for more great dining and shopping.
- » The R-LINE is downtown's free circulator bus service, connecting all downtown districts.
