

CAMPING IN RHODE ISLAND

RV Camping

Many of Rhode Island's campgrounds welcome RVs, giving you plenty of options for your camping adventure in the Ocean State. There's a campground to suit every camper, whether you prefer lakefront, beachside, pet-friendly, family focused, lively and active or wooded and serene.

The beauty of camping in RI is that our size makes any site you choose the perfect home base to explore all that the state has to offer, from beaches, hiking and water sports, to rich history, a vibrant arts culture and mouth-watering cuisine. It's the perfect place to pull in and stay awhile.

State Campgrounds

Rhode Island has five beautifully maintained state campgrounds with varying features and amenities. Whether you're looking to park your RV or trailer, pitch a tent or rent a rustic cabin, you'll find that perfect spot.

Burlingame State Park features a freshwater beach, canoe rentals, playground, and arcade. Charlestown Breachway features a beach, great fishing, and fantastic views. East Beach features a prime beach shoreline location. Fishermen's Memorial State Park and Campground features tree-lined paths and family activities. George Washington State Campground is within the 4,000 acre George Washington Management Area on the shores of Bowditch Reservoir.

Waterfront Campgrounds

With 400 miles of glorious coastline, we in the Ocean State know there's nothing better than summer on the water! If you're looking to set up camp by the beach or lakeside, we've got plenty of fantastic sites for you to choose from around the state.

Once you've got your beautiful water view secured, be sure to check out all of the amazing attractions, activities, entertainment, events and dining all within an easy distance from your campsite. From hiking to biking, canoeing to kayaking, fishing and boating, art galleries, museums and mansions - it's all here, it's all close and it's all yours to experience!
