Rowan Arts Council
Arts & Cultural Development Grant

PURPOSE:

Arts & Cultural Development (ACD) Grants are available for arts & cultural development organizations and individual artists seeking to expand access to arts and cultural opportunities in Rowan County. The ACD grants are designed to support the vision and mission of the Rowan Arts Council by providing direct support to arts and cultural partners in Rowan County.

ACD Grant Areas of Support:

- Arts education
- Individual artists (residency, teaching, projects, etc.)
- Acquisition of public art and or support of acquiring public art
- Development of new arts and cultural related facilities and programs, or other start-up initiatives
- Local schools seeking expanded arts & cultural opportunities
- Youth/children related arts and cultural initiatives
- Diversity and multicultural arts and cultural outreach and programs
- Collaborative initiatives between multiple organizations and artists
- Arts and cultural advocacy, shows, events, and activities
- Support and matching funds for community-wide arts and cultural programs applying for, and seeking substantial grants.
- Private, not-for-profit arts organization based in Rowan County

ACD Grants are not to be used for:

- General operations
- Funding staff
- Programs outside of Rowan County
- Purchase of equipment and/or supplies that serve no primary purpose in providing arts and culture in Rowan County

ACD Grant recipient requirements:

- Organizations must demonstrate financial solvency, and submit annual financial statements
- Organization or individual does not already receive City or County arts and cultural funding.

- Individual artists seeking ACD funds must demonstrate basic financial solvency in relation to the ability to fulfill the program to which grant funds are being requested. Individual artists must have a public showing of the completed project, and must demonstrate how the project benefits the Rowan County community.

Eligibility

- A mission that focuses on arts & culture
- Demonstrates the ability to provide arts & cultural program, and/or fulfill the grant project.
- Applicants are strongly encouraged to have matching grant funds when applying for ACD Grants.

Grants will be awarded in two cycles each year with applications due for grant cycle one on April 1, grants awarded on May 1 and applications due for cycle two on November 1, grants awarded on December 1.
