GATEWAY BUILDING RENTAL GUIDELINES (CHAMBER MEMBERS)

Every chamber member that wishes to utilize the Gateway Building shall adhere the guidelines and terms and conditions stated in the Gateway meeting space agreement and arrangements set out their tier membership.

All reservations are scheduled on a first come first serve basis. Gateway Partners shall receive priority over chamber members.

Chamber members will contact the CVB to book a meeting room. Gateway Partners cannot book meeting rooms for Chamber members, this can only be done through the CVB booking process. Whether the meeting room is booked electronically through the CRM or by submitting the editable PDF file directly to harding@visitsalisburync.com it will be logged in the building file. A record of room options requested will be kept via the CRM and PayPal.

Any room options must be paid within 10 days of booking. Any cancellation before 10 days will result in a refund, a cancellation within 10 days will result in a credit. Should the room be requested within a week's time (5 days or less) the room option(s) must be paid for at the time of booking. Any cancellations of rooms after paying for room options will result in a forfeit of funds for the organization with the option of a "Gateway option credit."

If a chamber member books multiple dates and cancels the first reservation within a week of the reservation, all confirmed future reservations will need to be rebooked through the CRM. Any options already paid for can be applied to future meetings as an "Gateway option credit."

Chamber members who book a future meeting room in the Gateway Building can adjust room, time and location depending on availability. Fee adjustments will be made appropriately based on room size.

A Gateway option credit can be applied to any services that the Gateway Building offers.

If any Chamber member is a no-show without calling or emailing to cancel, a charge 30% of the rental cost will be applied to the account due to the loss of meeting space and potential revenue.
