

THE OLD TOWN GUIDE

WHERE SCOTTSDALE COMES TOGETHER

SCOTTSDALE'S OLD TOWN is the beating heart of our city. It's where U.S. Army Chaplain Winfield Scott put down his farming roots in 1888 and where Scottsdale residents and businesses thrived in the decades that followed. Today, the various walkable "districts" of Old Town Scottsdale are hubs for the city's arts and cultural scene, nearly 100 fabulous dining and nightlife options, and highly favored shopping and lifestyle destinations.

OLD TOWN SCOTTSDALE

Take one look at Old Town Scottsdale and it's easy to see what makes the heart of our city so original. Nestled within nine walkable neighborhoods you'll find a unique collection of shops, restaurants, galleries and nightclubs, as well as contemporary public art installations and historic sites from the late 1880s. It's this effortless blend of chic urban amenities and Old West charm that gives Old Town its one-of-a-kind flair and makes it a can't-miss stop on any Scottsdale itinerary.

THE DISTRICTS

Old Town Scottsdale is the energetic heart of our city. In a little more than one square mile, you can explore nine easily walkable districts filled with art galleries, shops, restaurants, museums and nightclubs.

ARTS DISTRICT

Fine art galleries, wine-tasting rooms, Scottsdale's Museum of the West, the Scottsdale Artists' School and the Thursday night ArtWalk all call this district home.

FIFTH AVENUE SHOPPING DISTRICT

This long-time local favorite boasts dozens of unique shops, award-winning restaurants and the famous Bob Parks Horse Fountain.

BROWN & STETSON DISTRICT

This mixed-use district houses restaurants, bars and numerous hair salons, which may come in handy if you're planning a night on the town in the Entertainment District.

HISTORIC OLD TOWN

This historic corner of Old Town is fun and funky, with a decidedly Old West Flair. Western wear boutiques, Native American jewelry and historic sites are a few of the treasures you'll find here.

CIVIC CENTER PARK

The park's 21 acres of lush lawns, public art and bubbling fountains also house the Scottsdale Museum of Contemporary Art and Scottsdale Center for the Performing Arts.

SCOTTSDALE FASHION SQUARE

The largest shopping destination in the Southwest, Fashion Square is home to more than 250 premium retailers, a Harkins luxury cinema and multiple restaurants.

ENTERTAINMENT DISTRICT

The laidback daytime energy of this district explodes after dark, with celebrity deejays, live bands and master mixologists showing off their talents at upscale nightclubs and bars. There's even a swanky boutique bowling club offering craft cocktails and bottle service.

SCOTTSDALE WATERFRONT & SOUTHBRIDGE DISTRICTS

These districts on the banks of the Arizona Canal, house some of the city's most popular restaurants and boutiques.

HISTORIC SITES

In 1888, United States Army Chaplain and Scottsdale namesake Winfield Scott bought 640 acres of Sonoran Desert farmland in what is now the city's Historic Old Town District. The price? A whopping $3.50 per acre. A lot has changed since then, but here are five places where Scottsdale's rich history is still visible today.

LITTLE RED SCHOOLHOUSE

The Little Red Schoolhouse was built in 1909 at a cost of $4,500. It had two classrooms as well as a lower level that was used for town meetings. Today, the Little Red Schoolhouse is home to the Scottsdale Historical Museum. scottsdalemuseum.com

RUSTY SPUR SALOON

The Farmer's State Bank of Scottsdale opened on Main Street in 1921 and closed during the Depression. Today, the building houses the Rusty Spur Saloon and the old bank vault holds liquor instead of money. rustyspursaloon.com

CAVALLIERE'S BLACKSMITH SHOP

George Cavalliere opened his first blacksmith shop "out on the edge of town" (corner of Second Street and Brown Avenue) around 1910. In 1920, he replaced the original tin structure with an adobe building that is still a working blacksmith shop owned and operated by the Cavalliere family. 480.945.6262

SABA'S

In 1921, Dr. Walter Lawson built the Sterling Drug Store on the corner of Brown Avenue and Main Street. In 1948 the Saba family bought the property, added a Western façade, and has inhabited the building ever since selling boots and accessories. sabas.com

OLD ADOBE MISSION

This small white building, located on the southeast corner of First Street and Brown Avenue, was built in 1933. It is constructed of 14,000 adobe blocks that were made right on site. For many years this was Scottsdale's only Catholic church. olphaz.org

PUBLIC ART

Discover eight of Scottsdale's most beloved Public Art installations right in Old Town!

"THE DOORS" BY DONALD LIPSKI

What would it be like to stand inside a kaleidoscope? Find out when you venture inside this monumental work created from three 28-foot-tall mirrored panels.

"JACK KNIFE" BY ED MELL

This giant bronze of a cowboy on a bucking bronco gives a nod to Scottsdale's Western heritage and the city's official seal. You can safely cross into the intersection to take pictures by the sculpture.

"BRONZE HORSE FOUNTAIN" BY BOB PARKS

Created by Bob Parks, who owned an art gallery in town for 30 years, this piece showcases the beauty of five Arabian horses as they play in the fountain's water.

"SOLERI BRIDGE & PLAZA" BY PAOLO SOLERI

Designed by the late Italian architect Paolo Soleri, the bridge demonstrates the importance of solar movement and features two steel-clad, 64-foot-high pylons that create a shaft of light, marking the time of day.

"THE YEARLINGS" BY GEORGE-ANN TOGNONI

This monument to wild horses has become an icon of the free spirit of the American West and depicts three bronze yearlings galloping in full stride.

"LOVE" BY ROBERT INDIANA

Conceived when the United States was consumed by the Vietnam War, Indiana's "Love" sculptures became a symbol for peace. The sculpture is a favorite spot for taking pictures with the one you love.

"PASSING THE LEGACY" BY HERB MIGNERY

This life-size bronze depicts a vintage Pony Express rider and a contemporary Hashknife Pony Express rider handing off the mail to show the "Old West" meeting the "New West."

"KNIGHT RISE" BY JAMES TURRELL

This "skyspace" installation frames the sky as pure color and shows the changing light of the sky. The illusion created by this structure is most dramatic at sunrise and sunset.
