days as a frontier community abuzz with steamboat commerce,

Shreveport-Bossier,

Louisiana, has always welcomed adventurous travelers. Today, visitors to Shreveport-Bossier can roll the dice at six Vegas-style casinos, have up-close encounters with sharks, rays, octopuses and more at Shreveport Aquarium and race high-speed go-karts at Gators and Friends Adventure Park.

Shreveport-Bossier is also home to some of the largest Mardi Gras parades this side of New Orleans as well as an acclaimed culinary scene, three craft breweries, the largest paintball facility in Louisiana, and the American Rose Center. Whatever kind of adventure gets your pulse racing, chances are good that we've got it in Shreveport-Bossier.

If you'd rather relax and watch the Red River crawl past from the shade of a comfy patio bar... you can do that, too. In fact, it's probably a good idea to cool your heels for a while. After all, you never know what adventure awaits!

Thanks for exploring Shreveport-Bossier.

n Shreveport-Bossier, brunch is more than a meal – it's a rite of passage. Brunch means bottomless Bloody Marys and mimosas, jazz music, comfort food, and sunny patios. Chef and owner Boz Baucum presides over the weekly Sunday brunch at Marilynn's Place in Shreveport, which attracts huge crowds with cheap drinks, a Cajun and Creole menu, and a nonstop party vibe.

"In my restaurant, brunch is all about relaxing, eating and putting the weekend to bed," Baucum says. "From a restaurant owner's perspective, you've gotta love brunch in order to do it right. And we love it at Marilynn's Place."

Sunday brunch at Marilynn's Place kicks off at 10 a.m., with customers lining up for huge platters of piping hot beignets, bowls of Shrimp Creole and wallet-friendly cocktails until 2 p.m.

"When someone says 'let's go to brunch,' that doesn't mean 'let's go grab a quick burger,'" Baucum says. "If you come to brunch here, prepare to roll your sleeves up, get comfortable, eat too much, and make a few new friends."
