TOP Tracks

The Stevens Point Area entices outdoor enthusiasts with a classic mix of scenic trails. Here are some of the biggest hits:

THE GREEN CIRCLE TRAIL is a 27-mile trail that circles the Stevens Point Area, passing the Wisconsin River, Plover River and other streams. The trailhead is located at the Schmeeckle Reserve, a beautiful 280-acre natural area that's part of the UW-Stevens Point campus.

THE TOMORROW RIVER STATE TRAIL features 24 miles of hiking, biking and horseback riding between Manawa and Plover. In the winter, it's a snowmobile route that picks up in Plover and Amherst Junction.

THE ICE AGE TRAIL is a thousand-mile footpath that crosses through Portage County, offering almost limitless adventure.

STANDING ROCKS COUNTY PARK, just nine miles east of Plover, has more than 13 miles of rolling trails for hiking and biking.

BORN LEARNING TRAIL is an interactive walking trail at Mead Park, just steps from the popular K.A.S.H. Playground along the Wisconsin River in Stevens Point.

OUTDOOR Adventures

No matter what the season, the Stevens Point Area's beautiful outdoor attractions set good times in motion.

In the spring, enjoy the warm sun with a round of disc golf, or admire the new leaves as you hike on a scenic nature trail. Feel some creative energy during the annual Arts Walk, an event with musicians, dancers, and art activities.

In the summer, ride one of our renowned biking trails and on-road routes. When the leaves turn, take in the color as they reflect on the area's scenic rivers and lakes and admire the massive flocks of migratory birds that pass through. Head to Altenburg's Farm, where you can enjoy their pumpkin patch and corn maze, or stop by Casey's Orchard for fresh, juicy apples. In the winter, bomb down Iverson Park's sledding hills or their toboggan run. Take a sleigh ride at Wild West Campground & Corral or explore our ski and snowshoe trails or a picturesque skating rink.

NEW Wave

Adventure flows in the Stevens Point Area, where you can find paddling options that are perfectly in tune with your plans. Discover plenty of calm, family-friendly canoeing waters as well as more challenging spring waters that are perfect for kayakers seeking rapids.

Families and beginning paddlers should check out the calm waters of Lake Joanis in Stevens Point, a picturesque paddling location that features pristine water and easy access.

Intermediate paddlers can head to the Upper Plover River in Stevens Point, where they'll find generally flat water with some rocky stretches to navigate. The Tomorrow River in Amherst offers a meandering route through woods and fields, passing the historic Rising Star Mill.

Paddlers with advanced skills should head to Mill Creek in Linwood for some faster fun. Get out on the river in the spring, when the water is high and the rapids give skilled paddlers a challenge.

► | About the Stevens Point Area

Stevens Point

When Stevens Point was founded in 1858, this was a community of loggers, fur traders and brewers. The community is still known for its outstanding beer and so much more: companies such as Delta Dental, Sentry Insurance, Travel Guard and Herrschners all call this place home. The University of Wisconsin–Stevens Point is one of the community's treasures. The 400-acre campus includes Schmeeckle Reserve, the Wisconsin Conservation Hall of Fame, the Museum of Natural History, the Carlsten Art Gallery and the Allen F. Blocher Planetarium.

Plover

Just south of Stevens Point on the east shore of the Wisconsin River is the Village of Plover. This charming community is conveniently located at the crossroads of I-39 and is home to a variety of retailers and businesses, including O'so Brewing Company and Great Northern Distilling. The village also has many great parks and the Korean War Memorial of Wisconsin at Lake Pacawa.

Amherst

On the banks of the Tomorrow River, you'll find the Village of Amherst, a quiet but thriving community with a very strong sense of place. Amherst is home to the Tomorrow River State Trail, Lettie W. Jensen Community Center and Central Waters Brewing Company.

Other Gems

The countryside is dotted with small communities like Junction City, Almond, Bancroft, Rosholt, Nelsonville, Park Ridge, Whiting and Amherst Junction. The rural Lake DuBay area in northwestern Portage County offers many recreational opportunities and encompasses most of the townships of Eau Pleine, Hull and Dewey.

Fun Facts

The Stevens Point Brewery is one of the oldest continually operating breweries in the nation. It was founded in 1857 and once provided beer to soldiers in the American Civil War. The brewery survived Prohibition and today it makes a variety of delicious award-winning beers.

Area Accolades

The secret is out—the Stevens Point Area has received national recognition for its quality of life.

► | Lodging

FAVORITE Ensemble

The Stevens Point Area is the ideal place for a relaxing retreat with friends or someone special. The area's spas are a good place to start finding a new vibe—they offer a full host of services, including hot stone, relaxation and deep-tissue massages.

Tour the breweries, wineries and distillery that make up the Central Wisconsin Craft Collective. Explore beautiful art in area galleries like the Smith Scarabocchio Art Museum, the Riverfront Arts Center, the Carlsten Art Gallery and Q Gallery. Concerts take place regularly on the UW-Stevens Point campus, @1800 Theater, and the Lettie W. Jensen Community Center and showcase a variety of genres, including classical, bluegrass and jazz. The Central Wisconsin Symphony Orchestra offers performances throughout the year, including a popular holiday concert. Portage County is home to more than 40 lakes and rivers, offering beautiful places to watch the sun set. Good vantage points include Bukolt Park or Lake Pacawa Park.

Nearby, you'll find plenty of cozy restaurants with good wine lists and savory entrees.

A LITTLE NIGHT Music

Check in to relaxation. The Stevens Point Area offers lodging that will help you rest, relax and recharge. Enjoy the luxury of a modern hotel, the ambiance of a Victorian mansion or the rustic charm of a cozy cabin. Find your style and enjoy a perfect night's sleep.
