Dinner at Hearsay

1515 Dallas Street, Houston, TX 77010
(832) 377-3362

Hearsay Gastropub now has a sibling downtown known as Hearsay on the Green. Located within Downtown's Embassy Suites Hotel, the restaurant offers New American fare in an atmosphere similar to its sister restaurant with a 40-foot bar with two large wine vaults, historic brick ambiance, and a stunning chandelier. Owned by Lucky Chopra of Landmark Houston Hospitality Group, Hearsay serves upscale pub grub in grown-up style. Think: Warm-baked Goat Cheese Salad, Chickpea fries and smoked duck quesadillas. Hearsay also boasts a hearty beverage menu with a solid whiskey, wine and bubbly selection, as well as several beers on draft.

Brunch

Suggested: Breakfast at MKT Restaurant & Bar

1001 Austin Street, Houston, TX 77010
(832) 360-2222

  @MKTBARHOUSTON

Have a delicious breakfast as you easy listening and jazz tunes at MKT Restaurant & Bar. Located in Phoenicia Specialty Foods, the child-friendly restaurant is Houston's boutique grocery store. This contemporary breakfast spot has a delicious menu at great prices as well as an in-house wine and beer bar serving unique international fare. The industrial chic space seats up to 250 guests and is open until 2 a.m. on weekends (for those late night snack runs). A gelato bar, gourmet sandwich station, salad bar, olive bar, demonstration kitchen, wine and cigar department, fine housewares section, full-service bakery and fresh baked pizza corner also occupy the Downtown market.

Lunch

Suggested for in between panels: McAlister's Deli

Suggested Dinner at Kulture

701 Avenida de las Americas, Houston, TX 77010
(713) 357-9697

  @kulture_houston

From the popular owner of one of Houston's cult-favorite for breakfast, The Breakfast Klub, comes his new concept on Caribbean and Southern cuisine – Kulture. Dubbed downtown's urban komfort kitchen, Kulture pulls from three diverse and flavorful cuisines to create unique food, beverages and an overall dining experience. The industrial atmosphere is laid back with pops of color and historical touches all around. Located at Avenida Houston, it's open until 10 pm on Friday and offers happy hour from 4-7pm; live music is every Friday at 7:30 pm.
