

TOP 10

Heritage Trail
adventures

SUNDAY STOPS

- 1) Marvel at colorful, quilt-inspired, super-sized gardens - each in a different pattern - plus enjoy handpainted quilt-themed murals on the self-guided Quilt Gardens along the Heritage Trail. It's FREE May 30 – October 1 | 800.262.8161 | QuiltGardens.com

- 2) Put the pedal to the metal along the scenic Pumpkinvine Nature Trail, – the 25-mile stretch is great for walking, hiking, running, jogging, biking and mountain biking. Visit Pumpkinvine.org for printable maps and directions | 574.535.6458 | Pumpkinvine.org

- 3) Pedal, paddle, picnic and play in one of the area's many scenic parks. Visit AmishCountry.org for a list of area parks | 800.262.8161 | AmishCountry.org

- 4) Catch the "daily grind" (May – October) and purchase freshly-ground flour from Bonneyville Mill – the most photographed site in the area. Just South of SR 120, Bristol | 574.535.6458 | ElkhartCountyParks.org

- 5) Hop aboard the Enchanted Railroad to ride through 9 acres of display gardens and visit the petting zoo at Linton's Enchanted Gardens. 315 County Road 17, Elkhart | 888.779.9333 | LintonsEnchantedGardens.com

- 6) Enjoy lunch at Amish Acre's Restaurant Barn followed by a matinee performance in the rustic Round Barn Theatre. Guided farm tours, wagon rides and shops are also open. 1600 West Market Street (US 6), Nappanee | 800.800.4942 | AmishAcres.com

- 7) Tour the Beau-Arts beauty of Ruthmere Mansion, featured on A&E's America's Castles. 302 East Beardsley Avenue, Elkhart | 888.287.7696 | Ruthmere.org

- 8) Wander the Midwest Museum of American Art, home to the Midwest's largest Norman Rockwell collection. 429 South Main Street, Elkhart | 574.293.6660 | MidwestMuseum.us

- 9) Crystalline water once powered Elkhart's 19th century mills. Today, this 36 acre site is home to Wellfield Botanic Gardens where individual gardens are created in this native habitat. 1011 North Main Street, Elkhart | 574.266.2006 | WellfieldGardens.org

- 10) Drive the Heritage Trail, named "One of America's Most Scenic Drives" by the editors of LIFE.® On Sundays, pick up the Heritage Trail CD from local hotels, B&Bs or attractions. 800.262.8161 | AmishCountry.org/heritage.trail

HELPFUL HINT: When contacting these attractions by phone, we suggest calling Monday - Friday as you may get a recorded message on weekends.