

Genusee is hiring a full-time manufacturing and logistics associate

Job summary -

Genusee is an eyewear company that makes frames from single use plastic water bottles in Flint. We are looking for a precision-oriented professional with leadership qualities, good communication skills and that has the ability to work efficiently. The successful candidates primary function and role will deal with the post-processing (removal of flashing and buffing), assembling of frames (installing rivets and screws). We're looking for someone who enjoys contributing to, and growing with an innovative, forward-thinking team that always keep the end user in mind. We offer competitive wages and growth opportunities.

Responsibilities and duties -

- Apply working knowledge of assembly to the manufacturing process.
- Degate, buff and assemble frames.
- Meet company performance quotas.
- Participate in cross-departmental meetings.

Qualifications and skills -

- Strong organizational and communication skills.
- Rudimentary understanding of tools and light machinery.
- Experience with CAD, eyewear assembly, lens manufacturing, recycling, product manufacturing, shipping + logistics and/or plastics post processing, is/are a plus, but not necessary.

Compensation -

- 36-40 hours per week
- $11-$13 per hour depending` on experience.
- Operating hours are between 10am and 6pm Monday-Friday.
- Wage increases will be addressed at employee quarterly review.

Please contact Jack Burns

Email 24/7 Jack@Genusee.com