Sammy's Pizza

$$

One of the oldest pizza joints in Fargo, they serve classic pies and other Italian staples. When you walk in, they take your order and run the dough through the roller, then sauce and top everything fresh. You can build-your-own, or choose from one of their specialty options.

Spicy Pie

$

A notorious favorite among college students for late-night pizza and snacks, Spicy Pie brings you New York-style 18" pies and jumbo slices, 6 and 12-inch grinders, wings, and Mexican food. They hand toss their pizzas, then smother them in Saputo cheese and use specialty Alta Cucina tomatoes for an addictive flavor.

EAT, Midwestern Style

If you're always on the hunt for truly local cuisine, these six foods are the perfect Midwestern place to start.

Lefse

A traditional soft Norwegian flatbread that's rolled up and typically served with butter and cinnamon sugar.

Find it at:

Sons of Norway

Tater Tot Hotdish

The epitome of Midwestern classics, this layered hotdish includes beef, green beans, and of course, delicious, golden brown tater tots.

Find it at:

The Boiler Room or on a pizza at Ole and Lena's Pizzeria

Borscht Soup

Packed with hearty vegetables (beetroot gives it the distinct red color), top this Russian soup with a little cream.

Find it at:

Wurst Bier Hall

Krumkake

Delicate, decorative, and cone-shaped, these Norwegian waffle cookies are simple, yet incredibly delicious.

Find it at:

Nichole's Fine Pastry

Knoephla Soup

A thick and creamy dumpling based soup popular in Germany.

Find it at:

Kroll's Diner or Rising Bread Company.

Kuchen

A German cake that is similar to a fruit pie or tart.

Find it at:

Wurst Bier Hall (weekly flavors available) or Kroll's Diner
