All the way from Thailand, this chariot got quite a lot of attention from those at Girgaum Chowpatty. While the Thai happily waved to the cameras, the chariot with five white horses made its way to the Chowpatty.

Here are few of the glimpses from the event, what a beautiful sight it was indeed. Lord Ganesha truly knows his way to bring people together across all around the world

Ganesh Chaturthi is a very famous and colorful festival of India and marks the birthday of the Elephant Headed God, Lord Ganesh. It is celebrated in different manners throughout the country. Tourists are more than welcome to be a part of this celebration, with no regards to the religion, creed or culture.

We, at Ambassador Hotel, Mumbai, are fortunate to be Hospitality partners with guests hailing all the way from Thailand. All the guests were extremely happy to witness such a beautiful festival and participate like any other Mumbaikar in a traditional Indian attire.

At the end of their stay, the guests were extremely humbled and expressed their sheer gratitude by thanking us for our impeccable service, which is Ambassador Group of Hotels' one of the very important sets of values and commitment towards service.

We thank each and every guest from the Thailand Group for giving the opportunity to serve them and make them a part of the Ambassador Family.
